CANTONESE TROOPS' SMASHING VICTORY IN TEHAN AREA

Japanese Regiments Annihilated

EXCEEDS BIG SUCCESS AT TAIERCHWANG

HANKOW, OCTOBER 10.

AN OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE STATES THAT TWO REGIMENTS OF JAPANESE TROOPS AT WANCHIALING AND CHANG-KULING, TO THE WEST OF TEHAN, WERE PRACTICALLY ANNIHILATED BY THE CHINESE AS A RESULT OF A THREE-DAY ENVELOPING ATTACK.

THE VICTORY EXCEEDS THE FAMOUS CHINESE SUCCESS AT TAIERCHWANG IN MAGNITUDE. The battlefield, according to a dispatch, is literally strewn with Japanese dead, rifles, machine-guns, field pieces and ammunition.

NO LESS THAN 20,000 JAPANESE are claimed to have been wiped out, these comprising two whole divisions.

Crack Cantonese units are said to be responsible for the victory. They are reported to have stormed the Japanese positions situated in the hills to the west of Tehan.

JUBILATION IN CANTON

Canton, Oct. 10.

CLIMAXING a half-hearted celebration of the Double Tenth, literally thousands of crackers were let off here this evening when news of the Chinese victory by Cantonese troops in the Tehan area became known.

The entire city was a scene of jubilation the populace in general making merry. Reuter telephoned the news to General Wu Te-chen within an hour of the Kwangtung Governor receiving an urgent telephone call from the Generalissimo's headquarters in Hankow.—Reuter.

Under the command of General Hsueh-Yueh they are reported to have entirely wiped out the greater part of the Japanese defenders.

The Cantonese commanders, it is reported, informed the Chinese High Command prior to the engagement: "Either we clean up the Japanese or they clean us up."

The diminutive southerners are said to have put up a magnificent fight charging the Japanese lines repeatedly on October 8 and 9. News of the reported Chinese victory spread like wildfire throughout Hankow. It was relayed by telephone to all the provincial capitals. Firecrackers were set off to celebrate the victory.

HEAVY FIGHTING

THE CHINESE STARTED THEIR OFFENSIVE in the afternoon of October 7. After heavy fighting, they completely cut the enemy's rear and re-captured Wangchiasan and Laohuchien, two neighbouring heights, last night. Further tightening their cordon, they defeated the Japanese.

Only a small unit of some 200 Japanese succeeded in breaking through the Chinese cordon and fled in a northerly direction with the Chinese in hot pursuit.

The crushing defeat sustained by the Japanese 108th Division and the 149th Regiment of the 101st Division, west of Tehan, as officially announced by a communique of the Military Affairs Commission, was the heaviest so far suffered by the invaders on the Nanchang-Kiukiang front.

Out of the entire force led by General Matsura, it is revealed, only between two to three hundred men were able to escape.

JAPANESE PLAN

THE JAPANESE PLAN was to occupy heights about 20 miles west of Tehan, including Wanchialing, Changkuling, Yangchiasan, Lishan, Laohutsien and Fenghuangshan, to turn the Chinese positions on the railway.

Suicide Leap From Hotel

CONTON MAN KILLED WITH WILL IN POCKET

Canton, Oct. 9.

Li Ming, whose antecedents are unknown to the police and to the two sing-song girls whom he had called daily to his room in the White Cloud Hotel, had been planning suicide a long time. His will had been written out, and was in his pocket when he jumped yesterday afternoon from the 11th floor of the Ol Kwan Hotel.

Going to the Ol Kwan tea-room, he had had a high tea with his girl companions, and when they left him, Li Ming said goodbye with a smile. He went out on to the roof garden outside the tea-room door and leapt over the parapet.

Landing on a parked motor car, the body struck the windshield, and was horribly mutilated by the glass.—Our Own Correspondent.

NEW FLYING ROUTES

Britain And South America

London, Oct. 10.

It is stated that the creation of various new flying routes is contemplated with the object of establishing regular services with distant parts of the British Empire and also between England and South America.

One of the new routes is destined to connect Great Britain with New Zealand, via Canada. The route will be as follows: Southampton, Foyines (in Ireland), Newfoundland, Montreal, Vancouver, San Francisco, Honolulu, Christmas Islands, Fiji Islands and New Zealand.

Another service will be organized from London to Buenos Aires, via Lisbon, Tenerife, Bathurst, Natal, in Brazil, Rio de Janeiro and Montevideo.—Transocean.

WITHDRAWAL WELCOMED

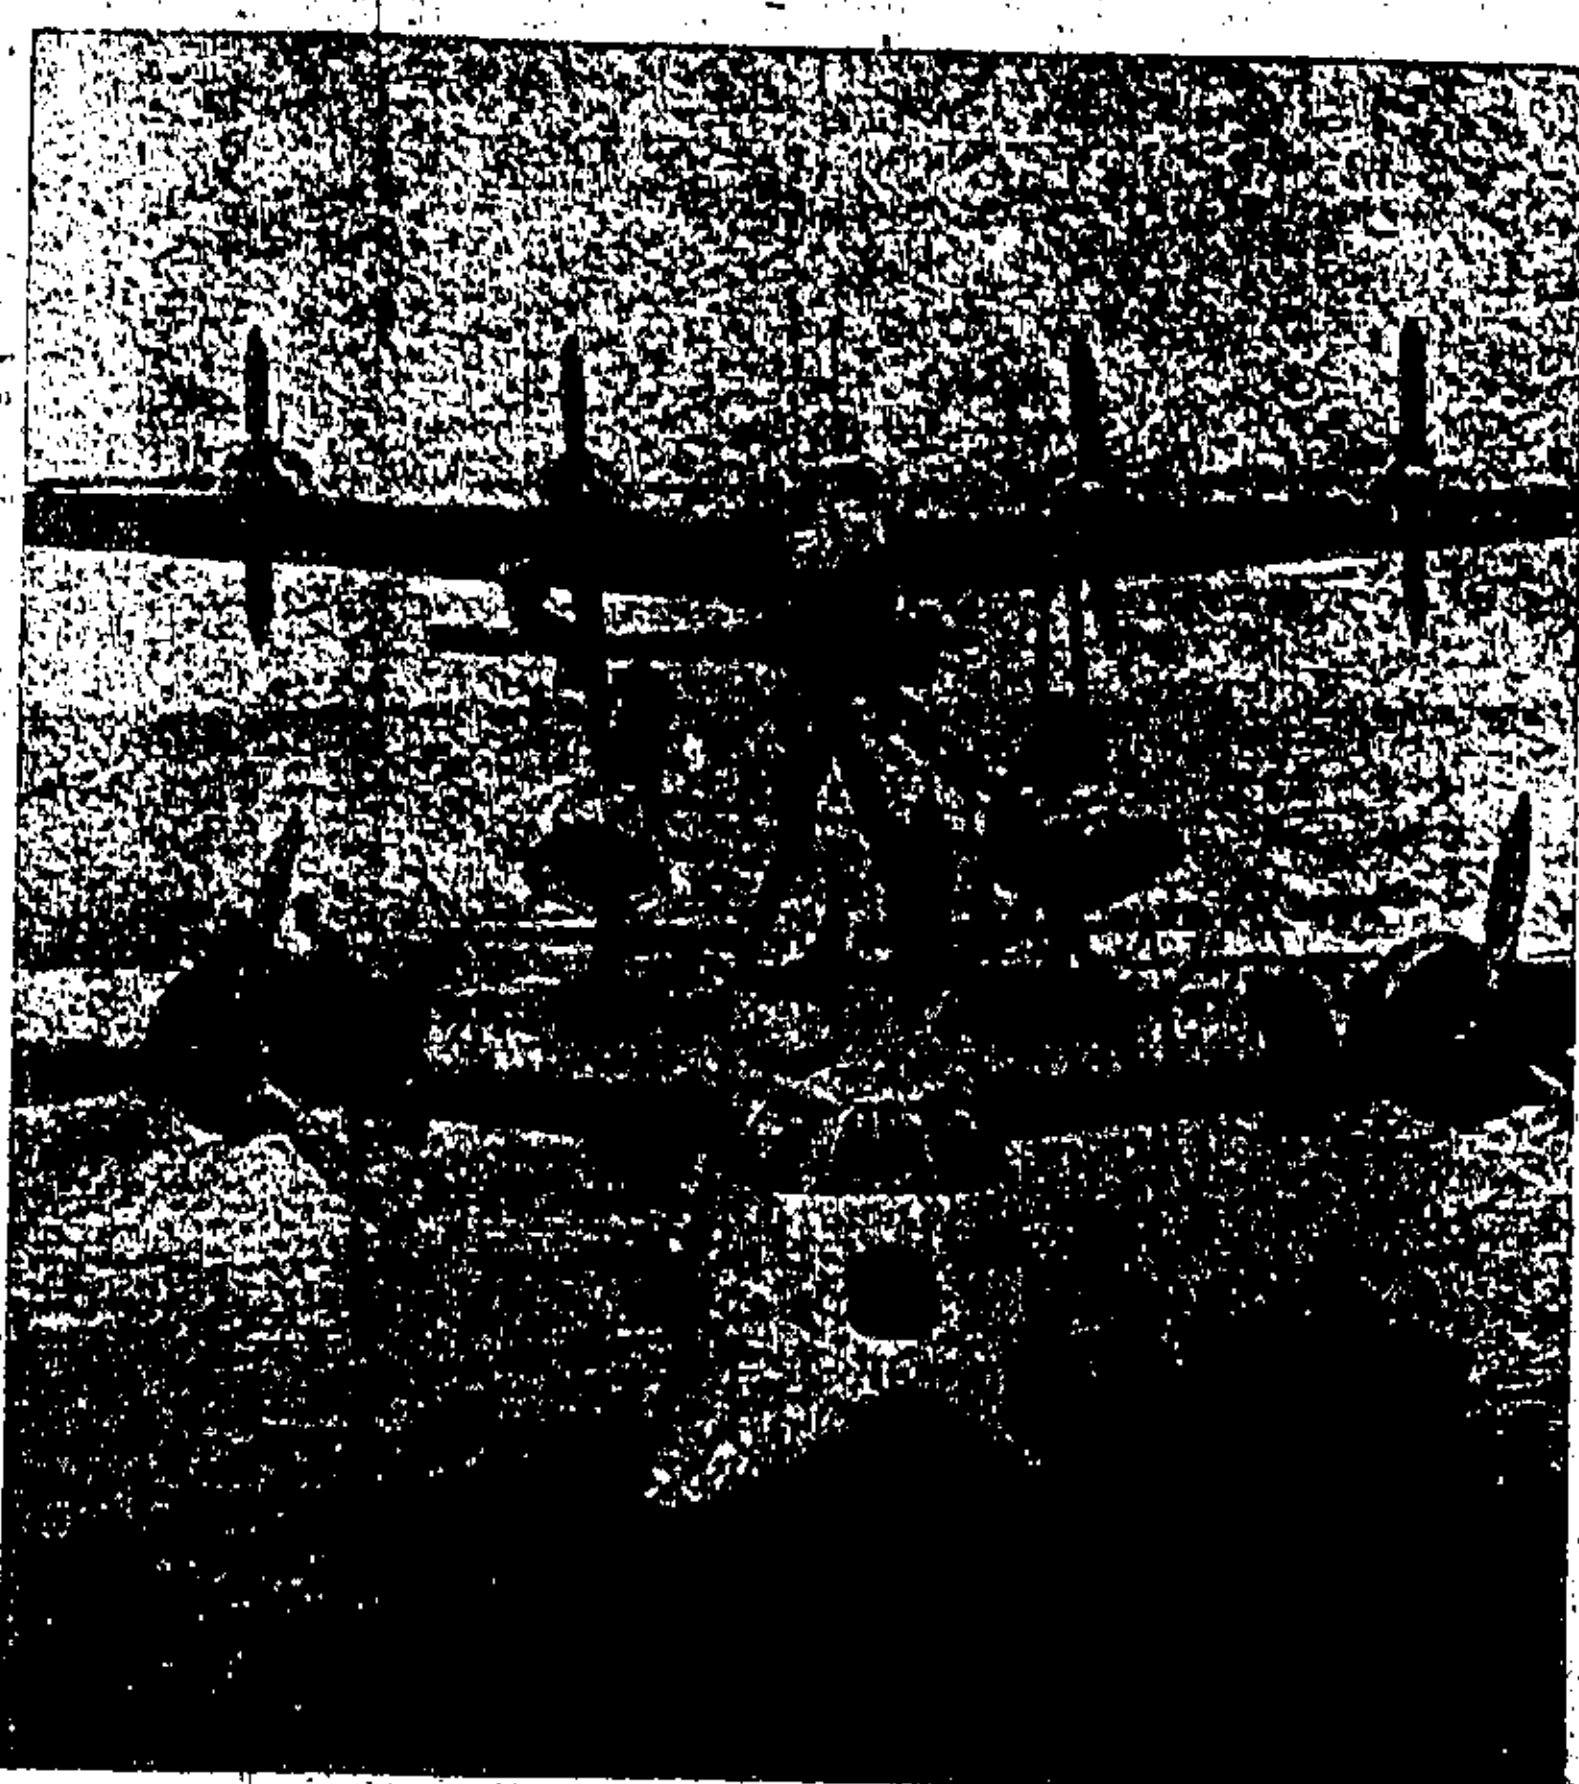

London, Oct. 10.

The diplomatic correspondent of the "Times" welcomes the forthcoming withdrawal of Italian volunteers as the first concrete measure to localise the Spanish conflict. A Rome dispatch to the "Times" confirms that the number of volunteers to be withdrawn will be 10,000 and states that informed quarters in Rome stress the view that the withdrawal is not merely symbolical.

The "Daily Express" voices the hope that the air force and other technical units will be included among the volunteers to be withdrawn.

The "Daily Mail" reports that Mussolini is prepared to recall 17,000 volunteers.—Transocean.

Canada Delighted At Royal Decision

Ottawa, October 10.

All Canadian papers in big headlines and editorials welcome the forthcoming visit of the King and Queen.

The Prime Minister, Mr. Mackenzie King, has asked the Governor-General, Lord Tweedsmuir, to convey to His Majesty an expression of gladness of himself, the members of his Government and the peoples of Canada at the Royal decision.—Reuter.

A Reuter message from London states that an outline of the programme for the visit to Canada will be published shortly.

VISIT TO AMERICA?

New York, Oct. 10.

The "New York Times" referring to Their Majesties' visit to Canada stated: "We cannot do less than to invite Their Majesties to pay a visit to our country and also to the World's Fair in New York."—Reuter.

BRITAIN TO RE-ESTABLISH PEACE AND ORDER IN PALESTINE

High Commissioner Will Return To-morrow MARTIAL LAW HINT

London, October 10.

The "Daily Telegraph" to-day comments on the decision of the Secretary of State for the Colonies to send 5,000 additional troops to Palestine, and states that the High Commissioner for Palestine, Sir Harold MacMichael, will return to Jerusalem equipped with full authority for the re-establishment of peace and order in all parts of the country. The opinion is growing that the Government will soon announce the abandonment of the partitioning plan in favour of one for a unified Palestine.

Calling attention to the fact that with latest reinforcements the British forces in Palestine number 18,000 military and 8,000 police officials, the paper presses the opinion that martial law will be imposed on the entire country.

In an interview granted to the paper "Iraqi" the Foreign Minister declared that "immigration" into Palestine should be stopped immediately since this method increases the difficulty of arriving at any solution.

Commenting on the action of the Colonial Ministry in sending additional troops to Palestine, the "Times" declares that this indicates the definite intention on the part of the British Government to re-establish normal conditions without further delay.

It is probable, according to the paper, that the High Commissioner will return to Jerusalem on Wednesday.—Transocean.

BOMBS DROPPED ON CANTON

SECOND DAY OF RENEWED RAIDS

Canton, Oct. 10.

For the second consecutive day, Japanese bombers raided Canton at 10 o'clock this morning, dropping a number of bombs on Saichuen, Yintoi and Tsengpa.

Bombs were also rained on the Tien Ho and White Cloud Mountain aerodromes and the Whampoa loop-line.

Chinese anti-aircraft guns fired a fusillade of shells at the raiders, forcing them to keep to a high altitude. The thunder of guns and the detonation of bombs rocked the whole city.

Earlier in the morning, Yuentan, Loktung, Nganchangau and Pakong, on the Canton-Hankow Railway, and Suntung, Pinghu and Tongtowha, on the Canton-Kowloon Railway, were bombed by two separate squadrons of Japanese aircraft.

Waiyeung, east of Canton, was also attacked by two machines.—Central News.

HONGKONG CELEBRATES DOUBLE TENTH

Foreigners Demonstrate Great Comradeship

MANY PUBLIC MEETINGS HELD DURING THE DAY

The 27th anniversary of the establishment of the Chinese Republic was observed throughout Hongkong yesterday by all sections of the Chinese community. Owing to the hostilities, the celebrations were generally quiet and touched with solemnity, but there was everywhere a remarkable perception of the meaning of the "Double Tenth" and national flag and other patriotic emblems were to be seen in every street.

Chinese girls were very active throughout the day selling flags, the proceeds from which are to be devoted to relieving distress among the war-stricken. Indicative of the strong sympathy which Hongkong residents entertain for China in her present struggle, flags were purchased by many foreigners and worn with a true sense of comradeship.

Meetings were arranged by all public bodies and charitable institutions, and Chinese schools throughout the Colony held morning assemblies, at which students joined in singing the Chinese National Anthem and other patriotic songs.

SHOPS CLOSED

All Chinese shops were closed to business, while portraits of national leaders and replicas of their messages were to be seen in many shop windows.

The Chinese Merchants' Club held a reception at noon in its rooms in China Building which was marked by a speech from the chairman.

ITALY TO REPATRIATE 10,000 INFANTRYMEN

Aviators And Specialists Continue To Serve Franco

MAXIMUM CONCESSION FOR SAKE OF AGREEMENT

Rome, October 10.

The maximum concession that Italy is willing to make unilaterally in order to bring about ratification of the Anglo-Italian Agreement is outlined in the latest issue of the official journal, "Informazioni Diplomatiche," which states that repatriation of Italian volunteers from Spain, as laid down by the provisions announced on Saturday, is considered capable of giving Britain an opportunity to make the Agreement effective.

It is estimated here that 10,000 Italian volunteers will be repatriated under the scheme.

The journal states that "in responsible Roman circles, it is held that, having carried out this not merely in symbol but in effect, Italy will not go further unilaterally."

The article states repatriation had been prepared long before the Munich Agreement and adds that the volunteers deserve to be repatriated now that the fate of the war may be held to be decided in favour of the Spanish Nationalists. Meanwhile, it is noted in political circles that the volunteers affected are all infantrymen, while aviators and specialists remain in Spain.

For some time reports have been current here that General Franco no longer requires the assistance of Italian infantrymen as he now has sufficient Spanish man-power. On the other hand, he is thought to be averse to losing the assistance of the volunteer air force.

The "Informazioni Diplomatiche" implies that recent rumours of the possibility of fresh Mediterranean pacts involving Britain and France are premature.—Reuter.

DOUBLE TENTH ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED IN HONGKONG

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ADDRESSED

"While I urge you to be patriotic and loyal to the land of your ancestors, as I know you are, I want you to abide by the laws of the Colony in which you live and to be good citizens so long as you remain here. You must keep your feelings under control and set good examples to others." Thus said Mr. Walter Hambling Chen, editor of the "Far Eastern Economic and Commercial Journal," in an address yesterday morning before the University of Hongkong Students' Union in the Great Hall of the University.

Mr. Chen paid a high tribute to the overseas Chinese for their patriotism and generosity and, as a result of his appeal for funds for the relief of the victims of the war, not less than $107 was collected.

Mr. See Chuan Jin, president of the Students' Union, presided over a gathering of several hundred students.

Mr. Chen said:—

Almost a year ago to-day, it was my privilege to address a gathering in this hall and it is a pleasure for me to be here again to-day to address you on "Patriotism and Service" as that, I think, is a topical subject.

In my address last year I told you that patriotism did not mean mere talk or personal prestige. It did not mean that only certain classes should love and serve their country. It means more, much more. It means that everybody must love and be loyal to his country and serve her faithfully and unselfishly. It means that everybody must do his duty and be zealous in support of the authority of his country and its interests, and his flag.

UNENDING DEVOTION

It means unending and absolute devotion to the welfare of one's country and fellow citizens. It means unchallenged obedience to the laws. It means sacrifice, sacrifice if necessary, of everything we have—our lives, our families, our homes, our money and our property, as well as our pleasures. It means that, if we have money, we should contribute money; if we have ability, we must contribute our ability; if we have strength, we must contribute our strength.

As he lay dying on the deck of H.M.S. Victory at Trafalgar in 1805, Lord Nelson was asked what message he wished to convey to his men and this was his reply, "England expects every man to do his duty." That message whenever read always sends a thrill through every Englishman.

At this stage, I think, China can send out a similar message for she, too, expects every son and daughter to do his or her duty. In the past, this spirit of devotion to our country has been lacking but now the Chinese people are taking up the real meaning of patriotism.

HONGKONG CHINESE PATRIOTIC

Though I urge you to be loyal to the land of your ancestors, I do not mean that you should, in doing this, break the laws of the place in which you live. Far from it. You must obey the laws and be good citizens and live just as you would in the homeland.

There is no question of the patriotism of the Chinese resident of Hongkong. There is no question of their love for China. They have been trying to do their duty. They have contributed and are still contributing a great deal for the relief of our troops and our innocent war victims and I hope they will continue to contribute.

The students here have done very commendable work and must be congratulated. Each has done his bit and done it usefully and unselfishly. They have indeed set an example to many of their elders and I hope they will keep up the good work.

The overseas Chinese have no peer so far as patriotism and generosity are concerned and everywhere one goes, one hears songs of praise from all quarters for the orderly and exemplary manner in which they behave themselves. They are excellent and loyal citizens, and if many of our Chinese at home would but follow their example, China would be all the richer.

Last year, when I visited Malaya and the Philippines, I found, just as I found in Hongkong, that the Chinese reap the full benefits of good, sound and beneficent administration and that happiness generally prevails because the overseas Chinese know they received a fair and square deal. Their treatment is very good and little racial distinction is noticeable.

FEW UNDESIRABLE ELEMENTS

True, there have been instances where undesirable elements and would-be ultra-patriots have expressed themselves in anything but the proper way, and have allowed their feelings to run riot, but I am glad to say that such cases have been few and far between. It was my privilege, in public addresses and press articles, to appeal to our compatriots to remain calm during the present hostilities. I tried to emphasize the fact that while the overseas Chinese could be good and loyal citizens of China, they could do much to maintain and improve the good relations and bonds of friendship between China, on the one part, and the places in which they lived, on the other, by remaining good citizens, by abiding by the laws and by contributing to the welfare of these places which were their temporary homes.

The overseas Chinese simply wishes to show his patriotism, to do something to help his fatherland and his compatriots. They have been trying and are still trying to do their bit. Will you allow me to mention just a few examples of the generosity of the overseas Chinese and also of his patriotism?

In Singapore, one of the best known merchants told me that he was giving one-third of his fortune to the war relief funds. His fortune amounted to some three-quarters of a million dollars. Straits currency but he is willing to give all and start anew if necessary.

A wealthy lady, who had already given $10,000, approached me one night after I had addressed a meeting and asked for an interview as she wanted to learn of the latest conditions in China and to know how she could best help China. An appointment was arranged for the next day, and, at the end of a two-hour talk, the lady went away, remarking that she now understood the situation and knew exactly what to do. The next day, the newspapers came out with big headlines saying that she had contributed a million dollars to the relief funds and that she would continue to contribute a million each year so long as the war continued.

NO QUESTION OF WEAKNESS

Mr. X, reputed to be one of the wealthiest Chinese in Malaya, was lying in bed, sick, when I called on him. Seeing that he was indisposed, I decided, after chatting for about ten minutes, to leave, but Mr. X insisted that I should remain and tell him more about conditions at home. Accordingly I remained for some time until Mr. X rang his bell and ordered a servant to bring his clothes.

He was too weak to stand and had to be supported. "Come on, Mr. Chen," he said, when he had dressed. "Where are you going? You can't go out in your condition. You are too weak," I answered.

"Where the existence of China and the lives of so many of my fellow-countrymen are at stake, there can be no question of weakness. Our country must be saved and our people must not be allowed to suffer. I must do what I can even if I die in the attempt."

That night, he took me to the homes of a dozen or more of his friends and urged them to subscribe to the relief funds. He would ask his friends how much they had subscribed and, when told, would say, "Your estate is valued at so many dollars. You should give at least double that amount." In case his friends demurred, Mr. X invariably said, "Well, if you don't want to help our fellow citizens, you subscribe so much more and I'll make up the remainder so that your contribution may be doubled. The money will be in your name and I need not appear in it at all."

A small boy approached a friend of mine and offered to sell him his watch for two dollars. My friend asked "Why do you want to sell it?" Whereupon the lad replied that he wanted some money for the relief funds. Telling him to keep his watch, my friend gave him two dollars and off darted the boy to the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, returning soon afterwards with a receipt for $2.00. Upon my friend asking for an explanation, the lad replied, "O there was an extra twenty cents which mother gave me to buy cakes. I wanted to do something to help. I can do without the cakes so I gave the twenty cents."

HOTEL BOY'S SACRIFICE

At Manila, my hotel boy told me that he intended to give a year's salary to the relief funds. When I suggested that this was a big sacrifice and asked whether he could really spare it, he replied "I cannot really spare it but I must do something for my country and my people. I cannot carry a rifle so I must give what I can. I have a little home in the village and a garden from which my family can obtain sufficient to eat. I have a roof here and I get my board and a few tips. What more do I want? How can I keep the money to myself when our soldiers and fellow countrymen are suffering so much?" It was impossible to answer this, so the year's salary was handed to the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

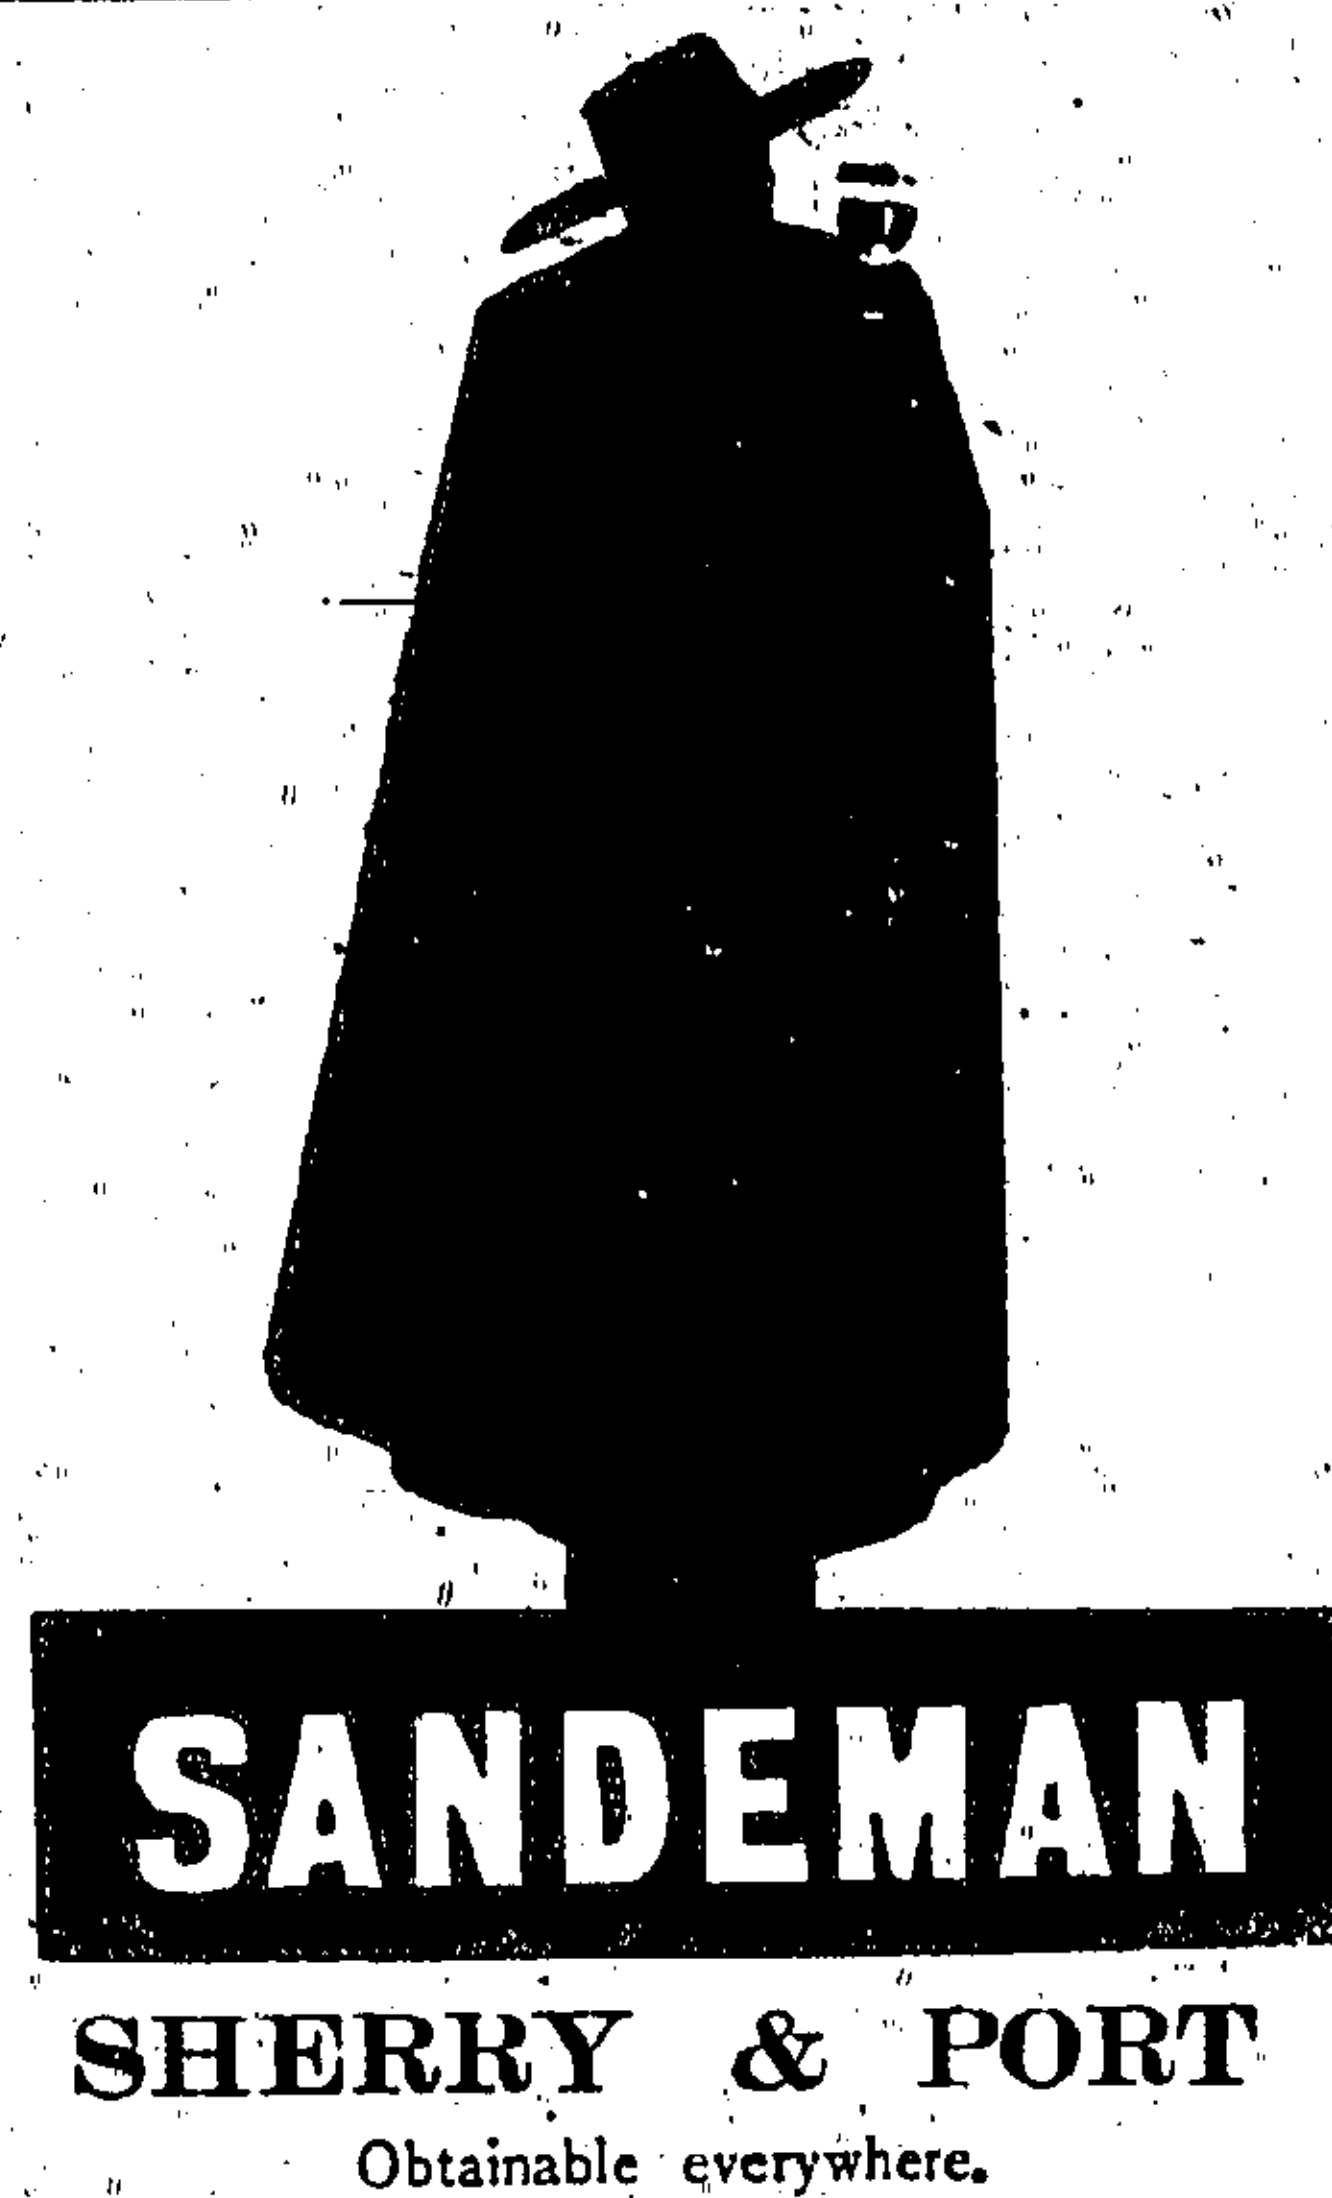

The overseas Chinese showed their loyalty, their patriotism and their generosity in a most commendable way and one could not help admiring them. To say they were an inspiration would be putting things too mildly; they were more than inspiring. They are an example which others would do well to follow.

The Chinese of Hongkong likewise have demonstrated their loyalty in a wonderful fashion but I do wish that some would do a little more. I have a feeling that if they could see what I was able to see at the front, they would give and give generously.

SUFFERING BEYOND DESCRIPTION

Mr. Chen then gave a description of what he had seen at the war front, of the aerial bombings of the sufferings of the troops and the civilians, all of whom bore up cheerfully and stoically in spite of terrible hardships. He also spoke of the bravery and magnificent conduct of the boy scouts and girl

FOOT ITCH Athlete's Foot

According to the Government Health Bulletin No. E-28, at least 50% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form, and the skin cracks and peels. After a while, the itching becomes intense, and you feel as though you would like to scratch off all the skin.

BEWARE OF IT SPREADING

Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.

Get rid of this disease as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of the legs.

Most people who have Athlete's Foot have tried all kinds of remedies to cure it without success. Ordinary germicides, antiseptics, salve or ointments seldom do any good.

HERE'S HOW TO TREAT IT

The germ that causes the disease is known as Tinea Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill the germ; so you can see why ordinary remedies are unsuccessful.

H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of treating Athlete's Foot—it is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the affected parts. It peels off the tissue of the skin where the germ breeds.

ITCHING STOPS IMMEDIATELY

As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time.

H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief, especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

NEW AIR LINE TO S. AMERICA

Will Be Ready
This Month

Two contrasted types of modern air liner, one British and the other American, are now bonding into intensive service with two British operating companies.

Flown and maintained by British personnel, and working over comparable routes, the machines will afford the keenest comparison yet possible between British and American commercial aircraft. In a year's time it is expected that data will be available which will enable operators to judge accurately between the two types.

The British machine is the Armstrong Whitworth Ensign, a type ordered by Imperial Airways a long time ago but only now coming into service.

The American machine is the Lockheed 14 of the latest type which will be used for the West Africa route by British Airways, Ltd.

250 M.P.H.

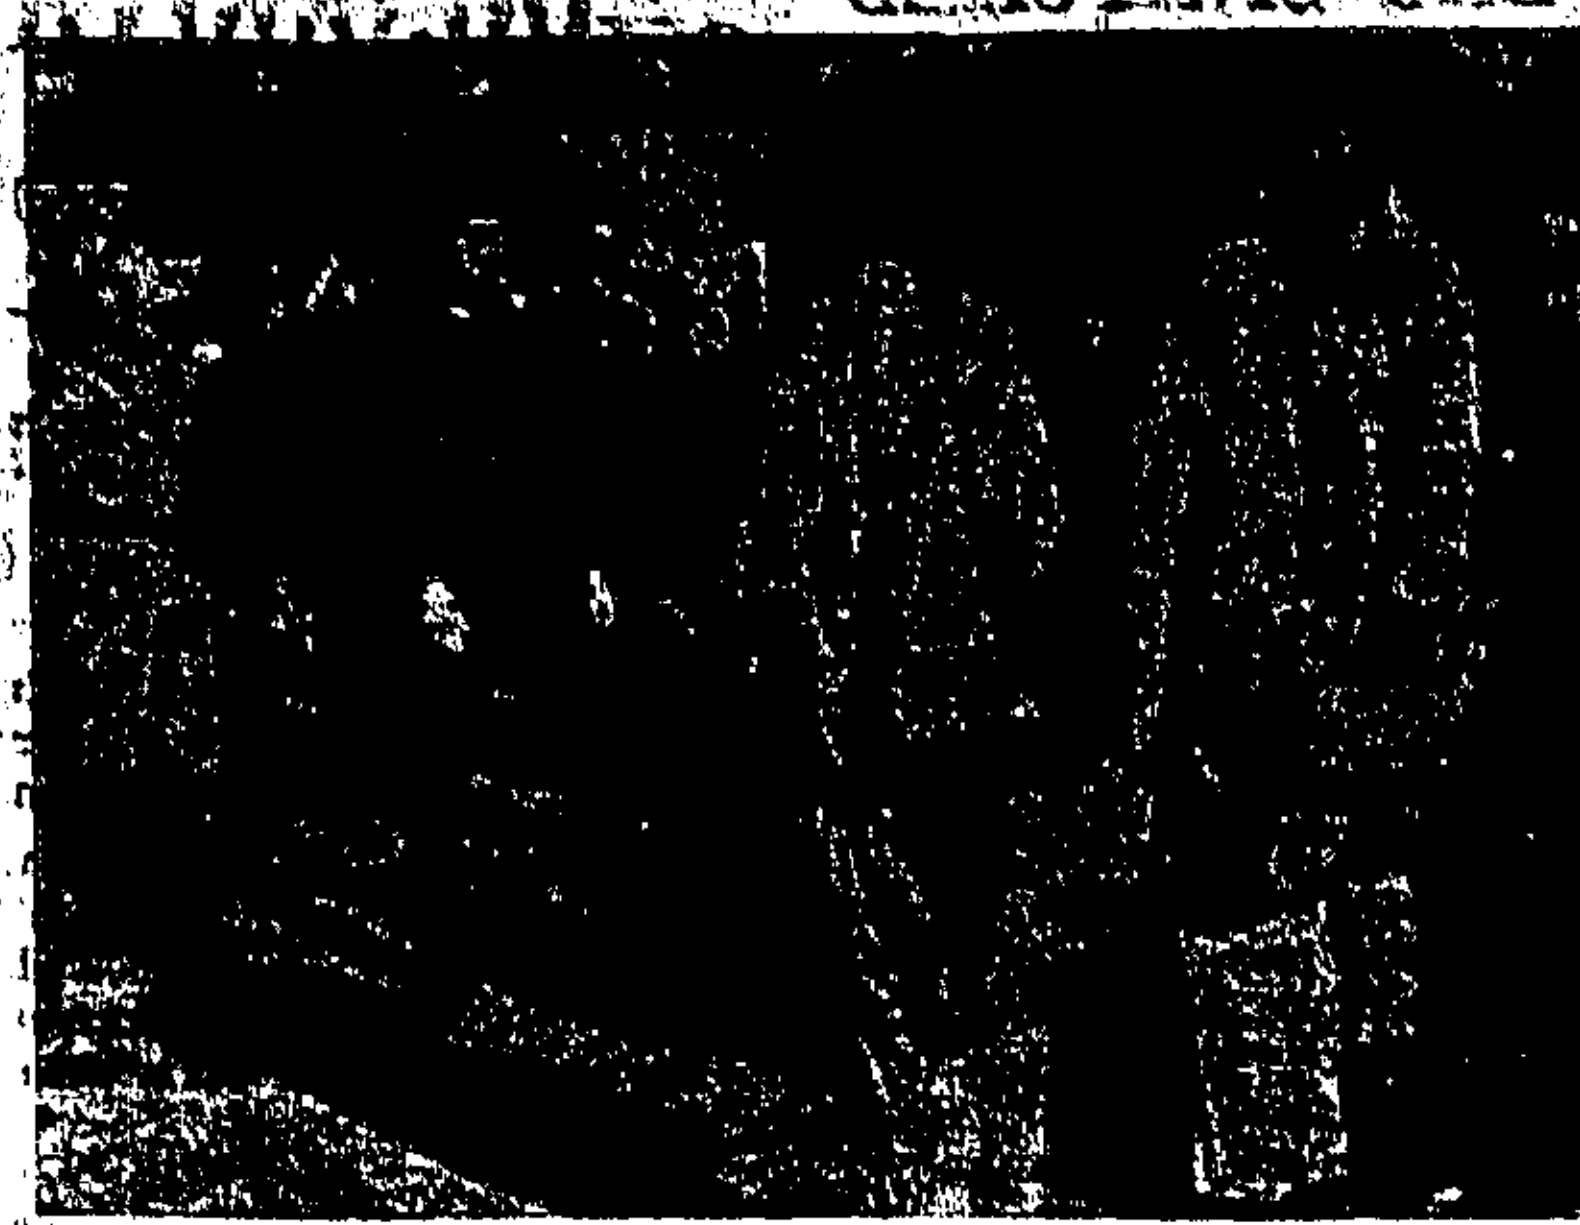

Four of the Lockheed 14's have been ordered. They are twin-engine, all-metal monoplanes similar to that used by Mr. Howard Hughes for his flight round the top of the world. They are credited with a top speed of 250 m.p.h., and a number of senior pilots of British Airways have been selected to fly them on the West Africa route.

By contrast, the top speed of the Ensign seems low, at about 205 m.p.h., according to the latest figures secured during acceptance trials, but it is a much bigger machine. The Ensign cruises at about 170 m.p.h., and the Lockheed 14 at about 225 m.p.h.

Both machines employ such components as retractable undercarriages and variable pitch airscrews. But the passenger will find much more room in the British machine than in the American. Whether passengers are influenced by the extra comfort which the additional space may be presumed to give, is a point which has not yet been settled.

In the past, air line experience has suggested that passengers will put up with a certain amount of discomfort if they are given a good deal of extra speed in return, and lately the French high speed air liners on the London-Paris route have been enjoying a rapidly increasing popularity.

NO GREAT DIFFERENCE

During a recent trial by one of the Ensigns, it was reported that it overtook a Lockheed Electra; so it may be that the speed differences between the Lockheed 14 and the Ensigns when cruising at strictly economical engine revolutions will not be so great as the original performance figures suggest.

British Airways intend to begin their South American line with the London-Lisbon stage and then to extend the service to Bathurst. The first section of the new route may be ready for opening this month.

For the crossing of the South Atlantic, between Bathurst and Port Natal, British Airways would probably use another type of machine, but this stage will not be opened for some time.

DOMINIONS IGNORANT OF ONE ANOTHER

Deploring the lack knowledge of each other which seemed to him to characterize the Dominions, Dr. William Menzies Whitelaw, of the staff of the Dominion of Canada Archives, appealed recently to an Ottawa audience to get better acquainted with the population of other parts of the Empire.
Dr. Whitelaw recently returned from an extended visit to Australia and stated that the ignorance about Canada in that country only equalled our lack of knowledge of Australia.
"The degree of ignorance of one another, on the part of the Dominions," he said, "is rather appalling."

DR. H. H. KUNG APPEALS TO CHINA'S MILLIONS

CO-OPERATION WITH GOVERNMENT IN RELIEF WORK

Chungking, October 10
An appeal to the 450,000,000 Chinese to co-operate with the Government in relief work, and increase of national economic power, practice war-time economy, join in conscription, and offer public service was made by Dr. H. H. Kung, President of the Executive Yuan, and concurrently Minister of Finance, on the eve of China's Independence Day.
The Chinese who remain in areas now under Japanese occupation are in particular urged by Dr. Kung to organize and rise in arms against the invaders in order to strengthen China's power of resistance.

Aware of the devastation and havoc wrought by the war, the National Government, Dr. Kung says, has spared no efforts in providing relief to the refugees. A National Relief Commission has been created to take charge of relief work and war relief bonds have been issued. Relief areas have been marked out in the war zones and refugee camps and stations have been established.
However, in view of the steady increase of refugees as the war drags on, public assistance is earnestly solicited in further relief work, especially with regard to the projects of reclamation and production by the refugees. Adequate relief will not only alleviate the sufferings of the refugees but will also increase the power of resistance, Dr. Kung points out.

As economy plays an important part in modern warfare, the people are further urged by Dr. Kung to co-operate with the government to increase the economic power of the country.
After the outbreak of the war, the National Government has provided every facility for the removal of the factories in the coastal provinces to the interior so that they may not be seized and utilised by the enemy and may continue their production in the rear.

DEVELOP RESOURCES.
Efforts have meanwhile been exerted by the Government to develop the resources in the southwestern and northwestern provinces and to increase the production of the country. But assistance from the people will contribute a great deal more to the increase of economic power, Dr. Kung states.

Whilst positively efforts should be exerted to increase production and develop the natural resources, negatively the practice of economy should be encouraged, Dr. Kung continues. The Thrift Movement should be promoted throughout the country. Government officials should set a good example for the public in this regard.
In this war of resistance every Chinese is expected to do his duty. To replace the army's casualties caused by the war and to do their part in the defence of the country able-bodied men should voluntarily enlist as conscripts without hesitation. Dr. Kung exhorts. He promises that the Government will extend adequate relief, pension and other privileges to the conscripts in accordance with the regulations already promulgated.

FREE SERVICE
Meanwhile, Dr. Kung adds, free service should be offered by the people to the country in the fields of production, water conservancy, development of communications, etc. He explains that at this time of national crisis the country is in demand of every citizen's service and every citizen has the obligation to offer his or her service to the country.

Turning to the Chinese in Japanese-occupied areas, Dr. Kung exhorts them to organize themselves and rise in arms to harass the enemy with guerrilla tactics. Their activities in the enemy's rear will greatly aid China's resistance.
Dr. Kung again expresses his confidence in China's final victory. He bases his observation on the following grounds:

First, Japan has been defeated in her scheme for a speedy victory and has suffered heavy losses during the past 15 months. The war is keeping a heavy drain on her material and man power. Anti-war sentiments are running high among her troops.
In North China, Chekiang and other provinces nominally under her occupation she is controlling only the towns and cities along the railways and highways whereas Chinese local governments are functioning as usual and guerrilla bands are active in areas away from these communication lines.

Second, Japan is drifting to financial bankruptcy as a result of her increasing war budgets.
On the contrary, China's finance has been placed on a sound basis. The managed currency policy adopted by the National Government in 1935 has greatly strengthened the credit of the legal tender. The emergency measures to limit the withdrawal of bank deposits adopted upon the outbreak of the war and the limitation imposed on the purchase of foreign exchange and the improvement of local economic structures later on have further stabilised the financial situation.
Third, diplomatically China has sought to cement closer relations with those countries which are sympathetic in her cause, though she does not mean to rely upon them in her struggle against the aggressor. The adoption of Article 18 of the League Covenant to apply sanctions against Japan may be construed as a great diplomatic victory for China.

In accordance with the League's resolution the National Government will negotiate with the individual member state of the League to apply effective sanctions against Japan and will also seek assistance of the United States which is the promoter of the Nine-Power Treaty and the Kellogg Peace Pact in this regard. —Central News.

GANG BATTLE IN SHANGHAI

Police Vigilant In Settlement

Shanghai, Oct. 10.
Guns barked just outside the International Settlement last night and two men were killed. Japanese officials are investigating.

It is believed that the battle resulted from a clash between rival gangs who wished to protect a gambling resort in the Tatoo district.

The shots were heard plainly in the western district of Shanghai.
So far this is the only disturbance reported on the eve of the Double Tenth.

Police in the French Concession and Settlement are doing extra duty and are assisted by foreign troops to guard against any incidents and to prevent the outbreak of terrorism to-day.

Shops selling Chinese flags are doing a flourishing business while Japanese tanks and motor cycles mounted with machine-guns are to be seen patrolling the streets of Hongkew.—Reuter.

ROYAL TRIP TO CANADA

Princesses Will Not Make Journey

London, Oct. 10.
Details of the visit to Canada of the King and Queen next year are not yet decided, according to an official statement.

Rumours that the ship for the voyage has already been chosen are inaccurate.

It is learned on good authority,
however, that the two Princesses
will not accompany their parents.

PRINCE TEH'S BROTHER CAPTURED

Wuyuan, Suiyuan, Oct. 10.
The younger brother of Prince Teh, the Mongolian puppet leader, was captured alive by Chinese mobile bands during recent fighting at the Tarho River in Suiyuan.

A ransom offered by Prince Teh for the release of his brother was rejected by the guerrillas.

The reports also reveal persistent Chinese guerrilla activities in northern Suiyuan, especially at Wuchuan, north of Kweisul, in the past few days.—Central News.

FATHER JACQUINOT IN HANKOW

Hankow, October 10.
Father R. Jacquinot, Chairman of the Refugee Committee of the Shanghai International Red Cross and promoter of the Nantao Safety Zone, arrived here from Changsha yesterday.

Interviewed by Central News, the Catholic father revealed that he is here to report to the Chinese Government leaders, especially Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, the refugee relief work of the Shanghai International Red Cross and his recent trip to the United States and Canada to solicit relief funds.

Father Jacquinot disclosed that he had succeeded in raising a total
U.S. $1,000,000 while in America.
He said that he will consult Madame Chiang Kai-shek with regard to the disposal of the money.—Central

Priests Assaulted By Demonstrators

RIOTS MAY RESULT IN SERIOUS POLITICAL CONSEQUENCES

Vienna, October 10.
Cardinal Innitzer is reported to be under preventative arrest in his Palace here. No official confirmation is obtainable, but a priest stated to Reuter that the Cardinal is not allowed to leave the Palace.
The Palace is at present occupied by Police officials who are enquiring into the riots, blame for which is being laid at the door of the Church.

Eye-witnesses, including priests who live in Cardinal Innitzer's Palace and the vicarage of St. Stephens, stated that while a group of demonstrators stormed the Palace, others broke into the vicarage and assaulted the priests, throwing one sexagenarian priest out of the window and breaking both his legs.

A precious old library of the Vienna bishops was completely destroyed.

An official spokesman of the Nazi Party disclaimed any connection with the riots. However, a score of demonstrators who were arrested have been released, and reports that several of the men were sent to the Dachau concentration camp are officially denied.

The political consequences of the riots are regarded as likely to be serious. A new and keener conflict between the Catholic Church and the Nazi Party is forecast.

SIGNIFICANT FACT
This is a highly significant and important development, since at least 95 per cent of the Austrians are faithful and devout Roman Catholics.

As the congregation left St.
Stephen's Cathedral last night they were greeted by boos and the loud playing of drums by several hundred Hitler Youth.

Subsequently the demonstrators marched through the streets singing "Hang the Jews." "Shoot the Priests!"

An official spokesman of the Nazis stated that Cardinal Innitzer is allowed complete freedom in his home and was arrested only as a measure of protection against the crowd.—Reuter.

HUNGARIANS AND CZECHS REACH AGREEMENT

Two Frontier Towns To Be Ceded

Komorn, Oct. 10.
The Czechoslovakian and Hungarian Czech delegations which met here during the week-end have reached an agreement regarding Czech territory to be ceded to Hungary.

A few hours before the opening of the Conference an undefined aeroplane flew over parts of Ruthenia scattering leaflets in Russian and Hungarian and urging the inhabitants to demand the cession of their territory from Czechoslovakia.

The leaflets incited the people to refuse to pay taxes and the soldier to desert from the Czech Army. Soldiers who hand in their machine-guns and rifles are promised payment in Hungarian money.

The incident is believed here to be a ruse engineered by sections of the Ruthenians who oppose the decision already made by their representatives in favour of an autonomous Ruthenia within the Czech State.

The new agreement provides for the occupation by Hungarian troops within 36 hours of two towns, Polysas and Satoraljaughe-ly, the progressive release of Hungarian political prisoners in Czechoslovakia and the progressive release of Hungarians from the Czech Army.

The agreement is merely a preliminary cession of two frontier towns and conversations will continue for several days.

It is not expected that the main outline of the region to be handed over to Hungary will be known for two or three days.—Reuter.

CHINESE LADIES AT THE RACES

Many Fashionable Dresses Seen

LOVELY COLOURS

By Rosette

Enjoyable things always have an aftermath. So it was with the Charity Ball at the Hong-kong Hotel on Friday night, for recuperation from the effects thereof prevented us going down to the Races on Saturday, thereby missing, so we are told, some really beautiful dresses.

There were not very many people at the Course, however, and in that respect we did not miss much; still, it would have been interesting to have seen how Mrs. Eu Tong-sen, Mrs. Raymond Pih, Mrs. Alice Kwok, Mrs. Mok Hing-wing, Mrs. Frank Grose and Miss Phyllis Grose, amongst others, looked.

The second day of the Race meeting yesterday found many more people present, the sun was out, the riding very good, and, as usual, Dame Fortune eluded us. We were compensated somewhat in our admiration of the beauty and colour everywhere, both of faces and of clothes.

Miss Helen Yu was dressed in black and white, organdie with a corsage of coloured posies. Mrs. S. N. Chau, wife of Dr. S. N. Chau, was in a striking blue sharkskin, with embroidered trimmings from the north.

PURSE TO MATCH

Mrs. Eu Tong-sen was gowned in a white georgette with pink flowers. She had rose-coloured shoes and purse to match. Miss Helen Kotewall, one of the younger daughters of the Hon. Sir Robert Kotewall, wore a green Egyptian printed silk frock and had a green patent leather purse.

Mrs. Ho Leung and Mrs. Ho Ki, inseparable sisters, looked soignée in blue and pink, respectively, the latter sporting a lovely pair of pink pearl earrings. Whatever luck they might or might not have, they certainly spent an active afternoon, being frequently seen in conversation with their numerous friends.

GREEN PREFERRED

Miss Mary Yoh and Miss Lillian Leung, fair members of Shanghai society, wore white silk with black flowers while her friend preferred green. The latter had a brooch with a green rose in the centre clasped to her throat.

Mrs. Ernest To—Miss Mina Long before marriage—looked very trim and neat in an old rose dress with white polka dots. Miss Violet Chan, one of the most popular members of the Chinese social set, wore a white suit with cape to match; a posy of pink and blue flowers attached to her dress added to the general effectiveness of her ensemble.

Perhaps the most outstanding dress on view was that of Mrs. Henry Chan. Her black silk frock, barely more than knee-length, was trimmed in an unusual style in green down the front and sides.

Mrs. Fung Ping-fan and Mrs. Fung Ping-wah, sisters-in-law, though not walking much, were seen long enough for their choices of attire to be noticed and admired. The former had on a black printed satin of delicate shade and cut; the latter was in a white dress of pink and blue flowers. They were often with Mrs. Li Tse-fong, in blue lace, and their sister-in-law, Miss Amy Fung.

WHITE SHARKSKIN

Miss Gloria Yee, who only recently celebrated her coming-of-age, looked cool as well as becoming in a long white sharkskin with a bolero of coloured stripes, matched with a purse of the same material.

Many more dresses well worth describing were on view but the weight of other things on our mind prevents us doing justice to them, so we will not attempt it—one of these things being a deep, but vain regret, that we laughed when we were asked to back National Guard in the first leg of the Dolly Double.

Perhaps it was just as well, for the sudden shock of leaving the Course $330 richer might have gone to our head to such an extent that these lines even might not have appeared.

PICKING WINNERS AT THE VALLEY RACES

ENCHANTING NEW HATS SEEN IN A SPLASH OF FASHION

By ROZANNE

I had been saying to myself "Weather permitting, racing I will go," and luck favouring me weather permitted, so armed with tips, tips and tips yet again went I to pick winners, but must confess when I saw the wealth of glad-rags, horses flew right out of my mind and I started to pick quite a different sort of winner.

One of the greatest thrills of the afternoon was meeting the charming and very new bride Mrs. Ian Macgregor, who was looking so fresh and smart in a wine and white striped boleroed frock with large white fine straw hat, despite the fact that she and husband had only got off the ship and had come straight to the race course.

Mrs. Jack Macgregor, naturally very happy, was very gay and I loved the soft pink of her chic ensemble with its unusual flat bows at the origin of the pleats in the skirt and cape.

The new hats really are enchanting, so varied in shape and colour. Mrs. Hormon-Fisher, here on a visit from Kobe had a navy heart-shaped felt popped over one eye with the most intriguing bird nesting in the middle with tail up-lifted. She is staying with Dr. and Mrs. Valentine and was chatting to Mrs. Valentine who had a most come-hither, vell to her high crowned brown hat.

FELT PILLBOX

Miss Minna Witham, in one of the new shades of green with touches of silver at throat and waist wore a felt pillbox, a most nifty pill hat, the obvious prescription for races and taken tied under the chin.

Eagerly scanning the sweep numbers, I bumped into Miss Compton with Naval brother, also intent on winning money. Her off-the-face model in navy with white touches picked out the colours of her frock and bolero.

Miss Bunty Drummond also chose a navy frock and covered hers with painted white spots, and wee beribboned glengarry perched on the back of the head looked most attractive.

Strolling over to the paddock I was most struck by Mrs. Fredericks black satin dress which had a flowered pattern in one of those beautiful new peachy shades. Also in black, was Miss Jean Mitchell, and I quite fell for the red embroidered interlacing pattern on her.

GAY IDEAS

The gay ideas in ornaments and accessories of this year's fashions were great fun. Mrs. Ted Neil had large gold small shells on her dark brown frock, and hat and a pair of matching earrings. Miss Harop wore a felt in the Mexican style and I had great fun picking out the little men and horses on her blouse of Mexican brocade.

Mrs. Pope had a most amusing family of brown fish on her pink linen. Big mother fish as a belt buckle and little fish buttons. Mrs. Shorty Helbart had masses of multi-coloured spots on the vell of her brown mackintosh hat which she wore to match a belt of leaves in the same material over a pale green suit.

I was breaking one of the commandments heartily when I saw the material of Mrs. Edmondston's frock. The ground of brown was the setting for a pattern in old golds and creams that I can only describe as being like the gorgeous

CHINESE WOMEN'S CLUB OPENED

Ceremony Performed By Sir Shouson Chow

AIMS EXPLAINED

The newly formed Chinese Women's Club was formally opened in Wyndham Street yesterday morning, the Hon. Sir Shouson Chow officiating in the presence of a distinguished gathering of over 40 people. This ceremony also served the added purpose of observing the Double Tenth.

The proceeding opened with a ceremonial paying of respects to the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen, "Father of the Chinese Republic."

The Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo made a speech on behalf of his wife, who is the President of the Club, thanking Sir Shouson Chow for his presence and calling upon him to perform the opening ceremony.

Mrs. Ellen Lee, the Chairman, set forth the aims and purposes of the Club. She asserted that it would last forever as even when the war ended there would still be much work for it to do.

Mr. Cheng Hung-nien, veteran Kuomintang leader and former Vice-minister of Communications, in wishing the Club every success, drew the attention of the members to the fact that their activities need not be confined to relief work but could be extended to educational work, emphasizing the need for a general betterment in this respect of the lower classes. He remarked that in view of the present state of China the Double Tenth celebrations this year were very quiet. He expected, however, that this time next year they would be present at a more elaborate, and indeed, triumphant meeting.

A poem written by Mr. T. V. Soong, and presented to the Club, was read by Miss Tso Wai-ki, daughter of Mr. Tso Sen-wen.

Dr. Li Shu-pui replied on behalf of the guests. A group photograph was then taken and tea was served.

Among the many distinguished people present were Mrs. M. K. Lo, Dr. and Mrs. Li Shu-fan, Dr. O. Y. Wu, Mrs. Violet Chan, Mrs. Ho Leung, Mrs. Ho Ki, Mrs. Ho Cheuk, Mrs. May Ho, Mrs. Ann Wei, Mrs. Arthur Woo, Mrs. Pauline Yee, Mrs. Rose Chow, Mrs. Nancy Kwok, Mrs. Alice Kwok, Mrs. T. Tang and others.

PERFECT BLUE

Mrs. Roberts had found a perfect blue, which reminded me of Love in the Mist, for her suit. She was awaiting the results of dividends with Mrs. Luce when I saw her and it was quite a symphony in blue (or is it Rhapsody?) and the latter had combined three shades of that colour in her frock and three-quarter length coat.

Mrs. Tinson's ensemble in one of the new magenta shades had hat and bag to match and Mrs. Hobkirk, in pale green standing behind her by the Paddock made an unintentional, but nevertheless eye-catching toning of colour. Mrs. Steele topped her daisy strewn black frock with a black bolero and a matching pixie hat; these little hats were also worn by Miss Margorie Simpson who had a suede model in cherry to match the sash to her white sharkskin, and Mrs. Britton who matched hers to her green and white squared taffeta frock.

Miss Betty Fair, proudly leading in Diogenes was in navy with a poke bonnet tough to her hat. Later I saw her welcoming back Mrs. Taggart from her holiday in America. The latter wore a sun-burnt shade of brown with a pattern of myriads of white envelopes. Also in navy was Mrs. Claude Barry, tiny flap pockets onto her bolero and red round buttons to her white blouse top being feature points.

TRAINING CLASS GRADUATION

CONFUCIAN HALL CEREMONY

No fewer than 31 Chinese youths, graduates of the Hong-kong branch of the Propaganda Training Class, organised by the four women's relief associations here, have completed their course and have offered their services to their country.

An impressive ceremony was held at the Confucian Hall, Caroline Hill, on Sunday when diplomas were awarded. Miss Man Pui-ha was in the chair, and the hall was packed to capacity.

Miss Ho Man-chiu, who was present as a guest speaker, addressed the graduates encouraging them and reminding them of the importance of their work in China's present struggle for freedom.

ROUND ABOUT

All is neatness and cleanliness in a young lady's room in a boarding house. Meals are well prepared and on time. The personal wardrobe and the laundry are well cared for.

Little is to be desired. Comfortable rooms, smoothly and efficiently cared for by the Number One boy.

But there is just one flaw. A large, upholstered chair has a rent in its covering. Days upon days pass and yet the opening is not repaired. Each morning, the young lady sternly and calmly asks why the chair has not been repaired, each time informing the boy to notify the landlady.

Still no repairing takes place. Then the final day arrives. Casting one disgusted look at her chair and sending for the boy she delivers a final ultimatum.

Number One boy, making a brave stand, chatters. "Landlady, talker, talker, all time—no done, done, done."

The chair was repaired!

"PATRIOTISM"
BY FORCE

OF CONSIDERABLE INTEREST is a dispatch from Tokyo to the effect that the Japanese Home Office has issued instructions to all prefectural police chiefs in Japan providing for:

1. Strict control and vigilance over possible subversive activities of Popular Front elements;
2. The curbing of pacifism based on superficial humanitarianism and extreme liberal ideas;
3. Control over anti-war speeches and writings;
4. Stern control over labour disputes started with motives of fomenting social unrest or class strife by exploiting the rise of prices and the consequent difficulty of living;
5. The tightening of control by the economic police; and
6. Strict guard against terrorist acts.

These instructions have been issued because the Japanese Home Office fears a "possible let-down in national spirit" after the capture of Hankow and are very interesting for China they are most encouraging since they clearly indicate that the Japanese are becoming increasingly dissatisfied with the way things are going, and may even become tempted to give open expression to their feelings.

It is indeed strange that policemen should have to be especially instructed to guard against unpatriotic activities expected to follow in the train of "Japan's next great victory." Why should it be necessary to be on the alert to prevent a possible "let-down in national spirit" after the capture of Hankow?

THE ANSWER IS OBVIOUSLY because the Japanese people are at last beginning to realize that more than twelve months of "sweeping victories" in China have failed to bring the "obstinate Chinese" to their knees.

PEACE STILL that the fall of UNSTABILIZED Hankow—if and when it comes—will still leave the task of "stabilizing peace" in east Asia unfinished. This being the case, Tokyo has taken time by the forelock, anticipating public demonstrations on the fall of Hankow, which is not a thoroughly safe (though wholly artificial) manifestation of joyous patriotic sentiment, and issued the instructions referred to.

Point 2 is evidently aimed at Japanese who have been sickened by what they have learned of the rape of Nanking, the bombing of open towns, the murder of innocent civilians—men, women and children.

THE THIRD POINT makes one marvel to learn that, in such a well-regimented nation as Japan, there can be men and women who dare to engage in speech and writing against war. It almost passes comprehension.

Point 5 is likewise significant in that it calls for the stern control of labour disputes started with motives of fomenting unrest or class strife for it indicates that the Japanese authorities are facing a serious labour problem about which very little is made public. That this movement is gaining momentum would appear, evident from the Home Office order, so every effort is to be made to control it before it becomes too deep-rooted.

LABOUR dication that the Japanese authorities are facing a serious labour problem about which very little is made public. That this movement is gaining momentum would appear, evident from the Home Office order, so every effort is to be made to control it before it becomes too deep-rooted.

THE SIMPLE FACT is that in Japan, as elsewhere, there are people who are "patriotic" when it pays and who need constant watching by the police—not because of their "dangerous

JAPAN'S BOMBINGS FAIL IN THEIR OBJECTIVES

By Our Special Correspondent With The Guerrillas

The recent bombings of Wuchow and Nanning in Kwangsi again bring up the repeated charge against Japan of ruthless bombings of non-military objectives. The intentions behind these frequent air raids are plainly obvious—to disorganise communications and demoralise the Chinese people by bombing cultural centres and towns. Such actions are no doubt based on a military calculation of results: to crush the morale of the enemy by using all possible ways and means.

On everyone—military commanders included—the news of the bombing exerts a subtle influence, while the effects of the bombings are seldom known except to those on the spot. What is imagined is simply a picture of horrible destruction, whereas the spirit of struggle brought forth by suffering and sacrifice is forgotten. This is where Japanese bombings fail. They can destroy with relentless thoroughness but cannot stifle the spirit of struggle. The more ruthless the destruction, the more concretely and vividly they bring to the masses the necessity for sacrifice, and to the leaders the necessity of organising all resources for ultimate victory.

WORTH MILLION PAMPHLETS These constant air raids convey vividly to all sections of the people who is their enemy. An air-raid alarm is worth a million patriotic pamphlets. Where words fail to explain, an air raid brings ruthless destruction requires no explanation.

The reports of destruction must have satisfied the military calculation of results. The military mind thereby becomes complacently resigned to "realistic thinking," neglecting even to ask to what extent the morale of the people has been affected by the bombing. What happens after the bombing is certainly as real as the results of destruction, though this is very often not taken into calculation.

The bombing of a few thousands of innocent civilians out of four hundred millions, with the intention of frightening public opinion into moving, the Government to yield, seem hopelessly ineffective. In fact such occasional suffering and sacrifice on the part of civilians only helps to intensify the feeling of national solidarity. Instead of weakening the determination of the people to fight, these air-raids serve only to bring home to all that the war against Japan is not only at the front, but is a war which must be fought by the whole nation.

JAPAN'S FAILURE

One of the Japanese Military Command's main objectives through these air raids is the interruption of vital lines of supply and communication. In this way, they hope to cut off supplies to the fighting forces at the front, and at the same time to disrupt the commercial interests of the country.

Unfortunately for the Japanese Command, the only vital lines of supply and communication are the motor roads and the river. The damage to communications that can be brought by air raids is therefore slight, in comparison to damage which can be done to railways and bridges. Perhaps it is this which leads the Japanese Command to justify their ruthless bombings of towns in Kwangsi. Otherwise it would certainly be difficult to understand what they hope to achieve by a wanton and blind destruction of life and property.

NEW POLICE
MEDAL

OPEN TO ALL RANKS

The King has been graciously pleased to approve the creation of a medal to be styled "The Colonial Police Medal." It was announced in the Government Gazette recently.

The Medal shall be open to all ranks of the Police Forces, civil and military, and to all members of properly organised Fire Brigades, in the Colonies and in Territories under His Majesty's Protection (including Mandated Territories).

Each recommendation for the Medal shall state the name and rank of the person recommended, the Police Force or Fire Brigade of which he is or was a member, and particulars of the action or service for which the grant of the Medal is recommended.

The qualifications for the Medal shall be as follows:—
(i) Conspicuous gallantry.
(ii) Valuable service characterised by resource and devotion to duty, including prolonged service marked by exceptional ability, merit and exemplary conduct.

Any award of the Medal for conspicuous gallantry shall be made as soon as possible after the event occasioning the grant; and all other awards shall be made annually on the occasion of His Majesty's Birthday.

The number of Medals to be awarded in any one year, for services other than conspicuous gallantry, shall not exceed one hundred and fifty save and except that in very special circumstances which, in His Majesty's opinion, would justify an exceptional grant, His Majesty may award Medals exceeding that number.

The Medal shall be worn next to and immediately after the Burma Police Medal.

The award of the Medal will not be a bar to subsequent recommendation for the King's Police Medal.

thoughts" but because of their much more dangerous acts—acts which are intended to profit themselves at the expense of the poor who are being forced to pay the staggering cost of Japan's "crusade" against the peaceful people of China.

Much has been heard of the possibility of an eruption in Japan—a possible revolution—if the war continues, and we wonder if this is what the Tokyo Home Office anticipates.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN
AND PEACEWorld Should Be Grateful

The European peoples want a peaceful solution of the Czech crisis. It is therefore necessary that everyone should have confidence in the great statesman who has assumed the heavy task of determining European policy.

The head of the British Government is as conscious as anyone else of the highest interests of the British Empire, which are identified with those of Europe, and he is sufficiently clear-headed for doing what it is expedient to do.

We should be grateful that there is a statesman courageous enough to seek the pacification of Europe by new processes.—(La Metropole, Brussels).

THIS NEW DIPLOMACY

It must be remembered that Mr. Chamberlain has spoken of a general settlement towards which he is no doubt working, through the means he thinks most likely to bring success, says the Irish Press, Dublin.

There may, in fact, be good reasons for secrecy. But, to judge by the face of things, the new diplomacy is no better than the old. Europe, or, at any rate, a portion of it is to be turned into a checker-board on which peoples are pawns and the moves are made according to the exigencies of power politics.

The big Powers confer, decide, act. Small States are given no voice in the matter. They are forced to accept.

As far as can be known, what is happening over Czechoslovakia now is a repetition—or it may prove an ironic undoing—of what happened at Versailles nineteen years ago.

FRONTIERS THAT CAN BE EASILY REMOVED

Following is a piece of "secret history" which occurred at Berchtesgaden before Hitler's departure for Godesberg to meet the British Premier.

Hitler, picking up a pencil, drew a map of Czechoslovakia with new frontiers. Herr von Ribbentrop, who was present, saw this, and suggested that he should re-etch the map in ink.

"Ah," Hitler replied, "with an eraser the pencil marks can be more easily removed." (L'Oeuvre) guides. It was heart-rending, he added, to see the ravages and one could only understand what he meant by making a personal tour of the war-torn areas. The suffering is beyond description.

In order to cope with these ravages and to alleviate the sufferings of the troops and the people, continued the speaker, it is very necessary that there should be relief of all kinds. There is an urgent need for ambulances, for doctors and nurses, for bandages and hospital supplies, for quinine and other medicines, for winter clothes, mufflers, gloves, ear-muffs and shoes and for gas masks. Already the cold is setting in in the north and the people have insufficient clothing. We must get as much up as we possibly can and as quickly as we can if we are to help our suffering compatriots.

I appeal to each and every one of you to help. You have done your bit. You have done the best you can but the best is not good enough. More is wanted. The work has been started. Look forward and don't turn back. Pledge on this national holiday to renew your efforts and to work harder for your suffering fellow countrymen than ever before. You will never regret it.

CHINESE CLUB
RECEPTION

Members of the Chinese Club observed the occasion by a meeting held in the Club's premises in the Bank of Canton Building, at which Mr. C. Y. Kwan, the Club's chairman, presided.

In the course of a brief address, Mr. Kwan expressed confidence in China's ultimate victory in the war. He referred to the great response given by high and low and rich and poor alike during the past few days to the flag-selling drive, and said that such a spirit had never been witnessed in Hongkong.

Instead of celebrating the occasion in the customary lavish manner, the Club only served light refreshments, the money that would ordinarily be spent being donated towards war relief funds.

GATHERING AT CHINESE Y.M.C.A.

Celebration of the Double Tenth attracted about 500 members of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. to the compound of the Kowloon branch of the Association yesterday morning.

The meeting opened with an assembly of the Y.M.C.A. Boy Scout troop in honour of the principal speaker, Mr. Leung Siu-cho.

The assembled members sang "The Chinese National Flag is Waving." This was followed by a recital of music.

The members then sang the national anthem while the flag war being raised.

With the flag flying, everyone bowed three times to it and then three times to the portrait of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

The dying wishes of the Founder of the Chinese Republic were read out. Rev. Lee Kau-yan led the assembly in prayers.

A short speech by Mr. Wat Lok-hing was followed by a song urging the people to rise against aggression.

A talk by General Cheung Chik-kong and a musical programme preceded the much-awaited discussion by a member of the "Y" on the ways and means of sending "comfort" parcels to soldiers at the front.

The assembled Boy Scouts took the oath of allegiance to their country, after which, Mr. Leung Siu-cho spoke.

The programme was brought to a conclusion by the singing of the "Volunteers March."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

A large gathering of prominent local Chinese businessmen met at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to commemorate the occasion.

Mr. Li Sing-kui, chairman, gave an impressive address, urging the Chinese people, each and all, to demonstrate fully their high morale and to follow the gallant Revolutionary martyrs' spirit of sacrifice and high ideals.

"While celebrating the Double Tenth in this time of national crisis, we should show our special sentiment and our patriotic spirit," he said.

"As we are now fighting for our national existence, for justice and for peace, we should demonstrate

ROOSEVELT DETERMINED TO ASSIST

High officials of the U. S. State and Navy Departments are now of the opinion that Roosevelt is determined to assist the two Western Democracies by every possible means in his power.

The United States may refuse to declare war again and send an expeditionary army to Europe, but the Congress will not be opposed to such measures of far-reaching importance as:

- (1) Amendment of the Neutrality Act in favour of France and Great Britain only;
- (2) The opening of new credits for the purchase of war-materials;
- (3) The escort of any such war-materials to allied ports by units of the United States Navy—United States News, Washington.

fully our high morale so that our power of resistance might be strengthened to achieve our final victory.

"In our Double Tenth commemoration to-day we cherish another greater hope, that every one of us will be prepared to celebrate the coming victory over the invaders."

Hon. Dr. Li Shui-fan and Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo also addressed the gathering.

Prior to the commencement of the meeting, an ambulance was presented to a representative of the Chinese Red Cross Association.

WANG CHING-WEI'S MESSAGE

Chungking, Oct. 10. A strong conviction of the success of armed resistance and national reconstruction is the advice given by Mr. Wang Ching-wei, Deputy General Executive of the Kuomintang, in a message to the Chinese on China's Independence Day to-day.

The noted statesman declares that only such a strong conviction can bring about firm determination and relentless energy to carry on the present struggle against the aggressor.

He bitterly criticises sensational propaganda which, he says, is usually based on imagination and therefore tends to weaken conviction.—Central News.

QUIET OBSERVANCE

Shanghai, Oct. 10. In addition to Chinese flags flying in the International Settlement in quiet observance of the Double Tenth festival by local Chinese, the anniversary was also, according to a Japanese press report, observed officially by the "Reformed Government" to-day.

A reception was given by Mr. Wang Tze-hui, Minister of Industry, at the Japanese Club in Boone Road.

In putting the five-coloured flag of the "Reformed Government" was flown in the streets which were decorated with banners demanding the downfall of Communism and "realisation" of a peaceful world.—Reuter.

NORTH POINT FIRE

A fire broke out on Saturday night at the palatial mansion now in the course of construction at North Point, belonging to Mr. Chen Wei-chow, brother of General Chen Chi-tang, former Kwangtung Governor. Damage done was slight, however, and the blaze was put out without much difficulty.

BATA WIDOW
A "CAPTIVE"
IN ENGLAND

Mrs. Paul Mary Bata, widow of the millionaire founder of the shoe factory at Zlin, in Czechoslovakia, is now virtually a prisoner in London.

She is anxious to return to her native land, but cannot do so because of transport difficulties, and the Czech frontier restrictions which involve the suspension of the air service to Prague.

"I want to get back," she said recently, "to prove to my country's people that by love for Czechoslovakia is as great as ever. As soon as I can get a plane I shall fly back."

"THEY REGARD ME AS MOTHER"

"All our workpeople regard me as their mother. We have schools for them when they are ill, and dozens of clinics to treat their ailments."

"I feel that now in their hour of trial I should be with them."

Mrs. Bata usually visits England at this time of year. She flew over on September 10 when she received a message that her only son Tom was to undergo an operation.

She watched by her son during his illness, and now that he has recovered without the necessity for an operation, she is desperately anxious to get back to Czechoslovakia.

"TO WORK FOR THE CAUSE"

Mr. Tom Bata said: "It seems that my mother will now have the greatest difficulty in getting back. She wishes to do everything she can for our country, and if she finds that the transport difficulties compel her for the time being to stay in England she will work for the cause here."

PRINCESS WAS
"TRAITOR"

Signor Roberto Farinacci, loud-mouthed Secretary-General of the Italian Fascist Party, has just made a barely veiled attack on Italy's royal family.

The latest object of his anti-Jewish campaign is Toscanini, the famous Italian conductor, whom he denounces as an anti-Fascist and a friend of Jews.

Toscanini has been conducting a series of concerts in Lucerne, Switzerland, and Signor Farinacci suggests that the Italian authorities should punish "on their return home, all Italians who attended them."

And the Fascist leader gives a list of cars with Rome, Milan, Bologna number plates which were seen outside the concert hall.

"These traitors can be easily identified," he writes. "What are their local Fascist Parties going to do about it?"

One "traitor" much more easy to identify attended the concert: her picture among the audience appeared in the world's Press.

Signor Farinacci can hardly have been ignorant of her presence there.

She was Crown Princess Marie Jose of Italy.

Yuen Hok Lam, residing at No. 38 Robinson Road, reported that some person entered his residence, and stole one handbag and three wrist watches, total value $71.50.

WORLD COSMOPOLITANISM, CHINA'S AIM

Meaning Of Struggle;
Effects Of VictoryCHIANG OUTLINES
NATION'S DESTINY

Hankow, October 10.

In the steel and fire of fifteen months of unremitting struggle, in which countless numbers of China's sons and daughters have lived and tasted the war, a nation's new life, full of promise, has been cast: the spirit of the Chinese people have now approached that of the revolutionary martyrs of 27 years ago, their action harmonious with the ideals of national reconstruction.

With these ringing sentiments Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek opened a lengthy message on the occasion of the 27th anniversary of the founding of the Chinese Republic.

"The Chinese people, without exception, have come to accept and enforce the Three People's Principles, and this is sign of the rebirth of the our nation," said the Generalissimo.

Much danger and difficulty will have come to pass before our object is achieved, the Generalissimo said, but the glowing flame that is the best indication of final success, will sustain and grow, while aggression will be vanquished, China's national life protected, and the full object of national revolution fulfilled.

Generalissimo Chiang continued by saying that whilst the rank and file at the front have done their duty towards the nation, he could not be sure that the people in the rear have discharged to the full their measure of responsibility.

"What are our revolutionary ideals? What is the future of our nation, and what our own destiny?" asked the Generalissimo.

WORLD COSMOPOLITANISM—The aim of our late Party Leader's revolutionary teachings is reconstruction of the Chinese nation to help to usher in world cosmopolitanism. To realise this, however, the Chinese people must first be strong themselves.

"For a score of years the majority of Chinese have neglected their duty. Now, with the starting of the nation's resistance against alien aggression, followed by sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of brave fighters at the front and the struggle of the entire people in the rear, China's international position has undergone a vast improvement."

General Chiang said there is no mistaking the direction of China's struggle, nor is there any ambiguity in her objective. China's victory, he said, would mean not only the achievement of her own reconstruction, but also a far-reaching influence in stabilizing the peace of the world.

"Our responsibility will therefore become even greater and our struggle fiercer, more difficult and dangerous, in which the least bit of negligence or laxity may not be counterbalanced," the Generalissimo said.

EUROPE IN CRISIS

He referred to the lightning rapidity and systematic control with which the European countries recently mobilised their arms and resources and the high spirit displayed by their peoples, and exhorted China to keep awake to their supreme duty all the time.

The Chinese people, he said, should know that the opportunity to greatest achievement always lies in the most critical period, and should do their bit in the revolutionary spirit of 27 years ago, when the martyrs, with nothing but bare fists, overthrew the Manchu throne and established the Republic.

He also mentioned the present international situation and pointed out that the chief tendency is towards curbing force and maintaining world peace. He believed that directly or indirectly, such tendency may be traced to China's war of resistance.

"China's struggle has not only ensured her own destiny, but also changed the course of the world," said Generalissimo Chiang.—Central News.

LIN SEN EXPRESSES NATION'S THANKS

Chungking, Oct. 10.

Mr. Lin Sen, Chairman of the National Government, wired to-day a glowing message to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek on the occasion of the 27th anniversary of the founding of the Republic, warmly congratulating him for his leadership during the present struggle.

On behalf of the nation and the entire people, Mr. Lin wishes the Generalissimo the best of health, and believes that with his able generalship final victory for China is a foregone conclusion.

Mr. Lin mentions the world-wide sympathy for the Chinese cause, saying this hastens China's liberation.—Central News.

SOLDIERS ENCOURAGED

Chungking, Oct. 10.

The National Government, in a mandate issued to-day, encouraged the Chinese soldiers fighting at the front.

It also ordered officers to give awards to soldiers who have performed meritorious services and commendation to those killed in action.—Central News.

CANTON MASS MEETING

Canton, Oct. 10.

Several thousand people attended a gigantic mass meeting in celebration of National Independence Day at 6 a.m. here this morning.

General Yu Han-mou, presiding, in a stirring speech, urged the people to defend Kwangtung and the Wuhan cities in the spirit of the Wuchang Revolution of 27 years ago.

The meeting decided to send messages of encouragement and commendation to President Lin Sen, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, and the Chinese troops fighting at the front and wounded soldiers receiving medical treatment in the rear.—Central News.

HANKOW BEFLAGGED

Hankow, Oct. 10.

Urges Policy
Of RealityHELP FROM GREAT DEMOCRATIC POWERS

"As China is not sufficiently industrialized to manufacture weapons of war to arm her millions of fighting men for self-defence, she is of necessity dependent on some form of foreign aid to sustain the war of resistance," declared Mr. Eugene Chen, former Minister for Foreign Affairs, in a statement to the press yesterday.

Declaring that China is engaged in a war of resistance, Mr. Chen said that no power, great or small, prepares for or engages in a modern war without allies. Japan before the outbreak of hostilities concluded pacts with Germany and Italy.

ACTIVE SECTORS

There must be a recognition of the fact, he continued, that the active sectors of the diplomatic front lie not only in Chungking but in Europe and America, in Geneva, where the civilized world meets and listens, in Moscow, London, Paris and Washington.

"And the Chinese Foreign Minister," in the opinion of Mr. Chen, "should sometimes be present on these fighting sectors to conduct in person major diplomatic operations whenever his experience and prestige might make for success in negotiations with other foreign ministers of friendly powers."

SPECIFIC POLICES

Mr. Chen urged a reasoned formulation of a general foreign policy based on existing world realities as well as specific policies regarding:

(1) Soviet Russia, whose immediate help on an adequate scale within the ambit of League resolutions is essential; and

(2) Great Britain, France, the United States, whose financial and other economic assistance is necessary until democratic statesmanship can make up its mind to combine the power of Britain, France and the United States with the power of Soviet Russia to restrain Japan by an overwhelming naval combination in Far-Eastern waters, or to demand cessation of Japanese savagery in China and compel Japanese attendance at a congress of Pacific powers to settle the affairs of Asia and re-establish peace by disarming Japan.

"There can never be peace," added Mr. Chen, "in this great region of the world as long as it is dominated by a great power with a soul that is feudal and with the modern and scientific means to satisfy appetites and ambitions that are an entire denial of the Good Neighbour."—International News.

Generalissimo and Madame Chiang Kai-shek will not hold a reception owing to the hostilities.

Squads of girls belonging to Madame Chiang Kai-shek's Women's War Relief Association went around the various hospitals visiting the wounded soldiers and distributing comforts.

The girls also visited the Chinese troops in the Hankow area.

SPANISH WAR
REPORTSCounter-Attack By LoyalistsFIVE REBEL PLANES BROUGHT DOWN

Barcelona, Oct. 10.

The Republican War Ministry in a bulletin issued on Sunday night reports from the Eastern front that Nationalist troops, supported by 35 tanks and many planes, attacked Republican positions on El Coso hill but were repulsed suffering heavy casualties. On Sunday afternoon the enemy made a new attack and succeeded in occupying two positions. The Republicans thereupon launched a counter attack and fighting is still in progress.

Republican planes were very active effectively bombing the enemy positions.

One Nationalist pursuit plane, out of a squadron of nine planes which had machine-gunned Republican positions, was shot down. Four more Nationalist planes were shot down in air fighting, while the Loyalists lost two pursuit planes.—Transocean.

LINES ADVANCED

Salamanca, Oct. 10.

The Nationalist Army Headquarters, in a communique issued on Sunday night, states that Nationalist troops captured several enemy positions on the Ebro front considerably advancing their lines and taking 176 prisoners.

On the Madrid front in the sector of Anover and on the southern Cordova front in the sector of Villa Franca, Nationalists rectified their lines. Nationalist planes shot down two Loyalist planes and probably three more in the Ebro region.

Nationalist bombers bombarded the ports of Barcelona, Tarragona and Valencia.—Transocean.

DISAPPOINTMENT
IN FRANCE

Paris, Oct. 10.

General disappointment over the tone and contents of the Fuehrer's speech in Saarbruecken characterizes the French press comments this morning.

Pointing out that the new fortifications announced by the Chancellor could be meant for no country other than France, "Le Jour" opines that his statements and arguments can scarcely be expected to increase the possibility of a rapprochement between the "immovable heads of authoritarian states" and the "transitory government leaders in Parliamentary countries."

"Petit Journal" states that although the Fuehrer's speech contained no open threats to France it could certainly not be regarded as conciliatory or hopeful in tone.—Transocean.

FRANCE WILL STAND FIRM

Paris, Oct. 10.

The newspapers are disagreeably surprised at Hitler's speech and some complain of the intimidatory tone expressing distrust in the value of the Munich Agreement and apprehension of Hitler's future intentions. That forebodings of the speech foreshadows further territorial demands is expressed by "Lepeque" which says that France will have to stand firm unless she is ready to surrender Alsace

Lorraine, Algeria, Morocco and Indo-China.—Reuter.

VIOLENT ATTACK
ON LINDBERGHSoviet Aviators'
Letter

Moscow, Oct. 10.

A violent personal attack on the famous aviator, Colonel Charles Lindbergh, signed by leading Soviet aviators is published to-day by "Pravda".

It would appear, according to this document, that Colonel Lindbergh, who, with his wife, was recently the guest of honour of the Soviet Government did not form, during his stay in the Soviet Union, a favourable opinion of conditions of the Soviet Air Force and that he voiced this deprecatory opinion in the course of a party in London after his return.

Col. Lindbergh is alleged to have said that the Soviet Air Force lacked leadership and was in a state of chaos. He is further alleged to have asserted that he was offered a high post in Soviet civilian aviation but declined to accept it.—Transocean.

BIG VICTORY IN TEHAN AREA

They were, however, themselves out-flanked by the defenders and crushingly emanated during a bitter struggle on October 7, 8 and 9, in which they steadily lost men and ground.

Climaxing a series of reverses, the Japanese positions early this morning, on China's National Day, completely crumbled and a desperate effort to break through the Chinese cordon was made but failed. Chinese forces tightened their ring and mercilessly blotted out the enemy troops practically to the last man.

The military communique, describing the important success, said the hillside where the battle was fought and won were literally strewn with Japanese dead and their broken arms. An inventory is being made for the large quantities of arms and ammunitions seized by the Chinese.—Reuter and Central News.

HITLER DWELLS CAMBRIDGESHIRE
ON AXIS PROSPECTSValue To German
Plan

Saarbruecken, Oct. 10.

"The Rome-Berlin Axis in the last two and a half years has proved itself durable. I am glad, nevertheless, that our work in 1938 can be accomplished peacefully," declared the German Chancellor, Herr Adolf Hitler, in a speech to a mass meeting here last night when he inaugurated a new theatre.

"At the beginning of the year I decided to bring back into the Reich 10,000,000 Germans," declared the Fuehrer. "I was convinced this could be done by only their own strength and power. You yourself see the gigantic works and fortifications being carried out in this region as part of that plan."

Referring to Bolshevism and the power of the international press, Herr Hitler said that there was great need for caution and determination in warding off any attacks from that quarter.

"I am resolved, therefore, to continue these fortifications in the west and extend them by including large districts in Aix-la-Chapelle and Saarbruecken," he said.

RELATIONS WITH BRITAIN

After thanking the German nation for its wonderfully manly behaviour during the crisis, Herr Hitler emphasised that Germany wanted only peace, especially in her relations with Britain.

"It would be good if Great Britain would drop some of her ways of the Versailles epoch. We will not stand any tutorial interference by British statesmen."

DISSOLUTION OF
FREE CORPS

Berlin, Oct. 10.

Herr Henlein to-day announced the dissolution of the Sudeten Free Corps. He also said that Herr Hitler had decided that south Moravia be attached to Austria and south Bohemia to Bavaria.

Air mail service between Germany and Czechoslovakia will be resumed and the resumption of the full normal service as soon as possible.—Reuter.

Amended List Of Probables

Newmarket, Oct. 10.

Wednesday's Cambridgehire has the usual open appearance and even the absence of Michomny does not help the backers' problems much although it has delighted bookmakers who would have lost the best part of a million had it won.

France hopes to repeat Palais Royal's win two years ago having well fancied entries in Khos Nader, Quartier Maitre, Sir Tam and Le Ksar while the English hoped he chiefly with Ramtapa, Bombay Duck, Domahs, Couvert, Hazel, Aims and Thankerton. The going is likely to be good.

The amended list of probable starters and jockeys reads:—Golden Sovereign (Jones), Le Ksar (Semblat), Sir Tam (Carls), Remtapa (Beary), Carlisle (Weston), Blandstar (Sprague) and Egyptian Queen (McKee). Michomny's injury is now found to be a sprained suspensory ligament. As it has not yielded to treatment, the horse has been scratched from the Cambridgehire.

The trainer states the colt possibly may not run again this season.—Reuter.

HUNGARY WANTS
LARGE CZECH AREA

Prague, Oct. 10.

The Hungarian Government is demanding a large area from Czechoslovakia in addition to the two towns ceded to it by agreement.

The Czech delegation to the the Komarom Conference is reported to have asked for time to consider the demands.

The press in Poland supports the cessation of south Carpathian Russia in order to form a common frontier with Hungary.—Reuter.

APPEAL TO CZECHS

JAPANESE
WRITERS WHO
HURRIED HOMEWere To Cover Fall
Of Hankow!

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

The behaviour of members of a group of Japanese writers sent to China to cover the fall of Hankow is strongly criticised in a letter published in the Shanghai Mahuchi to-day.

After seeing a little of the fighting around Tienchiacheng, it is stated, the party hurried back to Japan last Saturday.

"They came like war heroes," the letter declared. "They travelled by air, first class by boat and train and stayed in high-class hotels at Government expense."

Members of the group were sent to China, according to the letter, to furnish Japan with vivid pictures of the momentous fall of Hankow—but they did not even stay to see it, the letter adds.—Reuter.

JAPANESE DEFEATED
IN E. HONAN

Loyang, Oct. 10.

After two counter-offensives, Chinese forces in eastern Honan dislodged the Japanese attacking Chowchakow, about 75 miles southeast of Kaileng.

The invaders commenced their onslaught on Chowchakow on Saturday with the support of four bombers. They were held at bay by stout Chinese resistance.

In the evening, the Chinese took the offensive and recaptured several important points. In another attack the following morning, they put the Japanese to rout.

Fighting in the meantime has been raging at Kwaiyang, southeast of Chowchakow with the Chinese taking the offensive.—Central News.

SENSATIONAL WIN BY NATIONAL GUARD PAYS $530 AT THE VALLEY

MR. YEUNG WING-WAI RIDES FINE RACE

Good Crowd; Fair Times For Double Tenth Meeting

The sensational victory of National Guard, ridden by Mr. Yeung Wing-wai, to pay $530.00 for a win and $90.00 for place in the Fokien Handicap, first leg of the Daily Double, featured the second day of the Double Tenth meeting of the Hongkong Jockey Club at Happy Valley yesterday.

This and Centre Court's $205.00 for his win in the second race of the day compensated much for the dividends of the other events, which were comparatively ordinary. Successes on the part of the jockeys were fairly well portioned.

Despite the volume of rain that fell in the past few days the track was in good condition and some good times were recorded. The Daily Double was carried over to the next meeting. The pool was $3,704.

YUNNAN HANDICAP

The first race on the programme attracted only four starters with Elizabeth a hot favourite. Ridden by Mr. H. J. A. Hearne she fulfilled expectations with Just in Time (Mr. L. Wade) second and National Pride (Mr. H. P. Chanson) third. The only other starter was Handicap Eve (Mr. Y. T. Fung).

CANBERRA HANDICAP

The magnificent dividend of $205.20 was paid by Centre Court (Mr. S. W. Tang) in the Canberra Handicap when the favourite, Eve (Mr. H. C. Pih) was beaten out of a place, after leading for three parts of the race.

Electron (Mr. V. V. Needa) was second and Lancashire Chips (Mr. B. A. Proulx) third.

DOUBLE TENTH PLATE

King's Warden (Mr. Needa up) though getting away to a poor start, finished strongly and beat Cameronian (Mr. Encarnacao) by two lengths. Confusion Bay (Mr. Hearne) got away pretty well but could not maintain the pace.

The dividend of $23.90 for a win and $23.00 for a place was in the circumstances very satisfactory.

KWANGSI HANDICAP

Red Feather (Mr. P. Y. T. Wei) won the Kwangsi Handicap to pay its backers $58. It was a very good race with New Star (Mr. S. W. Tang) second and Hamdrum Eve (Mr. H. C. Pih) third.

The field was sent away to a very good start and the ponies were bunched together for the most part, thinning out only at the Distance Post.

FOKIEN PLATE

Dark Hazard (Mr. C. F. Chin), which was heavily backed, lost its rider early on in the race which was finally won by National Guard (Mr. Yeung Wing-wai) to return the dividend of $530.00. The return for a place bet was $90.00.

National Guard was kept back till the field reached the Home stretch when the animal was given it head and it responded gamely to win by a length.

CANTALA HANDICAP

A very close race culminated in a fine burst by Griffel (Mr. Needa) which brought her home by two lengths. Ranger (Mr. Gregory) and Aztec (Mr. Raymond) fought it out past the Public Stand, with Lucky Lad in attendance. The second managed to beat Ranger into third place by a length.

HUNAN HANDICAP

The penultimate race of the day saw Mr. Charlie Encarnacao ride Gold Coin home to pay $20.10 with Salvage Master (Mr. B. L. Tao) second and Valorous (Mr. V. V. Needa) third.

Plain View (Mr. H. C. Pih) tried to make a run away race of it but had not the stamina to last the pace. It faded out of the picture at the Village Bend.

The finish was very close until the last 100 yards when Gold Coin put on a spurt and won by two lengths.

KIANGSI HANDICAP

Mr. H. C. Pih rode a well judged race to win the Kiangsi Handicap on Scenic View by a head from Soldier of China (Mr. P. Y. T. Wei) with King's Lead (Mr. V. V. Needa) third.

It was a fine finish to a good day's racing, the first two ponies running neck and neck for the last 100 yards or so.

CHARITY SOCCER MATCH

South China Beat The Rest

LEE WAI-TONG'S FINE GOAL

(By Robin)

The absence of Middlesex players was felt in the Charity football match played at Caroline Hill yesterday, when South China defeated the Rest of the Colony 3-0.

The vacant positions were ably filled by U. B. Souza (St. Joseph's) in goal, who played a very steady game, while T. Castilho and A. Souza both worked hard.

Prior to the game, a group of Chinese students gave a splendid display of gymnastics, which was very well received.

The stands were packed to capacity, and the thousands of spectators were delighted to see their idol, Lee Wai-tong, score a third goal, with a typical low drive into the far corner of the net. Lee displayed glimpses of his old form but the pace was too much for him.

The outstanding player was Hui King-sing, the Rest pivot, whose keen anticipation broke up many attacks. The Rest half-back line and backs were hard worked throughout the game. Of the Rest forwards, Fowler and Blake were inclined to keep the ball too long, thereby wasting their opportunities. Suen Kan-shun was the brains of the Rest attack.

Lau Tau-man was a constant danger to the Rest.

CHINESE LEAD

The Chinese took the lead through Fung King-cheong who netted an easy goal. Hussain was penalised just outside the area and Lau Tau-man passed to Fung, but the effort was nullified by Souza.

Play during the second half was confined mostly to the Rest's territory giving the defence an anxious time.

Lee Wai-tong went through on his own but shot into Souza's hands. Tam tumbled a nice drive from Suen, which he did well to save.

Towards the close of play, Lee Wai-tong, revealing a glimpse of his form, weaved through the defence, and scored the third goal in fine style.

The teams were:

SOUTH CHINA:—Tam Kwan-kon; Mak Shui-hon; Lee Ting-sang; Lau Tin-sang; Leung Wing-chiu; Tse Kam-hung; Yeung Shui-yick; Fung King-cheong; Lee Wai-tong; Lai Shui-wing and Lau Tau-man.

THE REST:—U. B. Souza (St. Joseph's); A. Souza (St. Joseph's); Hussain (St. Joseph's); V. H. White (Kowloon); Hui King-sing (Eastern); T. Castilho (St. Joseph's); Munro (Royal Scots); Suen Kan-shun (Eastern); F. Fowler (Club); D. S. Blake (Kowloon) and Hau Ching-to (Eastern).

SCHOOL HOCKEY

Win For Ellis Kadoorie

Playing on the Radio ground yesterday, the Ellis Kadoorie Indian School defeated Queen's College by the odd goal in three in a friendly hockey match.

The losers scored first through Gopal Singh, but a few minutes before the interval M. Afzal equalised for the Indian School.

On resumption Kater Singh put his side in the lead from a melee in front of the College goalmouth. Yusuf and Balwant Singh played very well for the winners while the outstanding player for the losers was K. Mohammed.

PING-PONG WIN

In a friendly ping-pong match played yesterday the Ellis Kadoorie Indian School defeated the Technical School by six matches to five.

NEW YORK YANKEES WIN WORLD SERIES

"Red" Ruffing's Pitching Outstanding Feature

New York, Oct. 10. The New York Yankees clinched the World Baseball Series by winning their fourth straight game against Chicago Cubs yesterday by eight runs to three. By doing so, the Yankees established a record of winning three World Series in a row.

A crowd of 60,000 exultant "fans" saw Chicago Cubs being overwhelmed.

"Red" Ruffing pitched his second victory of the Series for the Yankees, while the Cubs tried Lee, Page, French, Carleton and Dean in that order in a fruitless attempt to check the champions.

The scores were:

Yankees 8 11 1

Cubs 3 8 1

The Cubs batted first, but it was the Yankees who opened the scoring in the second inning with three runs on an error by Jurgens. Three hits were made off Lee, by Gordon, Ruffing and Croset.

The Cubs scored one in the fourth frame on two walks and an error by Gordon.

HENRIK'S HOMER

In the six, Henrik clouted a home-run off Root to make the scores 4-1 in favour of the Yankees, but the Cubs pulled up to 4-3 in the eighth when O'Dea homered, bringing Cavaretta home with him.

However, the Yankees retaliated in the same inning by doubling by Gordon.

BRITAIN'S JULY TRADE RETURNS

Large Drops Shown
All RoundADVERSE BALANCE
£31.9 MILLIONS

Britain's imports, exports and re-exports in July, 1938, showed large declines in value as compared with the same month of 1937. As compared with July, 1936, imports showed a considerable increase but exports and re-exports both showed substantial decreases. The adverse balance of visible trade was £31.9 millions in July, 1938, as compared with £31.1 millions in July, 1937, and £23.6 millions in July, 1936.

Imports of food, drink and tobacco increased substantially as compared with July, 1937, but there was the large decrease of £7,131,101 in imports of raw materials and nearly as large a decrease, namely £6,893,000, in the imports of manufactured goods.

Of this decrease, the largely non-competitive headings of non-ferrous metals and oils were responsible for £2,642,000, while as a result of the restoration of the iron and steel duties, the imports of iron and steel fell by £1,057,000, so that in respect of all other manufactures there was a drop of £3,194,000.

The exports of manufactures fell by £8,439,000, there being a drop in the case of every heading except machinery.

DISTRIBUTION OF TRADE
The July "Board of Trade Journal" contains the customary article on the geographical distribution of Britain's trade during the first quarter and the first half of the year 1938 with comparable statistics for the two previous years. The following table contrasts the position in the first half of this year and of 1937 as between Empire and Foreign countries:

Six Months Jan-June

(£ millions)

1937 1938

From Empire

countries 199.7 191.2

From foreign countries 283.7 278.4

Exports of

U.K. Goods

To Empire

countries 119.3 117.2

To foreign

countries 131.9 116.0

Re-Exports

To Empire

countries 5.7 5.7

To foreign

countries 34.8 27.1

It will be seen that exports of United Kingdom goods to Empire countries during a whole half year, exceeded those to Foreign countries. This is the first time this has ever happened.

It shows that during a period of trade recession Britain's Empire markets are much more stable than her foreign markets and accordingly this emphasises the importance of Imperial Preference, now gravely threatened by the proposed Anglo-American trade agreement.

TRADE WITH THE UNITED STATES

The E.I.A. feels as strongly as H.M. Government or as any section of the British community on the desirability of close and friendly relations with the U.S.A. and would regard with great satisfaction the expansion of mutually advantageous Anglo-American trade.

The cold hard facts of the existing commercial relations between the two countries must, however, be faced and the effects of tariff concessions to the U.S.A. examined in the light of the continued employment of our British workers.

The concern with which the E.I.A. regards possible tariff changes favourable to U.S.A. export trade with Great Britain is based upon the most recent figures available, as follows:

Jan-June

(£ millions)

1937 1938

U.K. Imports

from U.S.A. 47.0 63.5

U.K. Exports

to U.S.A. 16.3 8.8

U.K. Re-Exports

to U.S.A. 6.5 3.4

It would thus appear that the U.S.A. now sells us seven times as much as she buys British goods from us, or five times as much as she buys British and imported goods from us.

This half-year we bought 216 1/2 millions more from her than in the same period of 1937 while she bought from us £10.8 millions less.

The following table contrasts the U.S.A. as a market for British goods with the principal Empire Markets:

Exports of U.K. goods six months

WOLFRAM EXPORTS
NOW CONTROLLEDRICH RESERVES
IN CHINA

Export of wolfram and tungsten ores, which are found in abundance in Kiangsi, Kwangtung and Hunan as well as in Kwangsi, Fukien, Hopei, Yunnan and Kweichow, have for some time been controlled by the Natural Resources Committee of the Military Affairs Commission.

A special bureau to deal with this particular mineral has been established, with headquarters in Nanchang.

No accurate statistics are available concerning China's reserves of wolfram, but it is estimated that the provinces listed possess no less than 949,000 tons. Kiangsi generally produces about 65 per cent. of the yearly total.

During the Great War, China exported no less than 10,000 tons. The following are the exports for selected years:—In 1928, $2,820,883; in 1936, $9,343,294; in 1937, $40,758,592; from January to August 1938, $38,518,808. Of the last figure, $35,202,881 worth was exported through Hongkong.

agreement with a foreign country which contemplates increased exports of food stuffs to Great Britain.

THE RATING
ORDINANCE

The "Gazette" contains the draft of a Bill to amend the Rating Ordinance, in which Clause
2 adds to section 43 (1) (2) and
(7) of the principal Ordinance words enabling any loss in revenue occasioned by the default of an owner or occupier of a tenement in refusing or neglecting to furnish particulars as required by section 4, or knowingly making a false or incorrect statement of such particulars, to be recovered summarily with interest at eight per cent. before a magistrate.

The clause also adds a new subsection (8) to section 43, extending the time within which proceedings may be taken to six years from the date of the offence.

Clause 3 adds a new section
43A to the principal Ordinance, enabling the Assessor "on the conviction of any person for an offence under section 43 (1) or (2), to make a new valuation of the tenement, and making rates payable upon that valuation
from the date of the conviction until the next assessment.

HOLIDAY CRICKET MATCHES

Seniors Draw On Club Ground: H.K. Juniors Win By 7 Wickets

W.L. Rapley, E.F. Fincher In Fine Batting Form

BRIGHT BATTING BY W. L. RAPLEY, who retired after making 71 on the Recreation ground, and a polished knock for 60 by E. F. Fincher on the Club ground were features of the holiday matches played yesterday between senior and junior League teams representing Hongkong and Kowloon.

The senior match ended in a draw with the mainland team holding the advantage when stumps were drawn. Besides Fincher's innings, this match was also featured by good bowling by B. D. Lay who captured three Island wickets for 21 and splendid batting by A. R. Minu, who hit up 36 in a lightning innings.
In the junior match at King's Park, Hongkong easily defeated Kowloon by seven wickets. For Hongkong, Paxton (4 for 25) and Coombes (3 for 25) bowled well.

Detailed scores of the senior match were as follows:—
